I Want to Meet YOU

by JACK WILD

Jack thinks you are the most wonderful girl in the world! He is anxious to meet you! Here are the addresses and phone numbers where you can find him!!

WOW—is America ever a wonderful place! And you know what—you are the most wonderful girl in America! Now, don't go thinking I'm daft or anything like that, because I really mean what I'm saying. As far as I'm concerned, American girls are the best girls ever. There are so many reasons for this that I hardly know where to begin, but I'll try to get my thoughts together and tell you why I want to meet you —and how we can arrange it!

HOW WE CAN MEET

The very best thing about you (whom I consider a typical young American girl) is your enthusiasm. I mean, when you really like something—well, you aren't uptight about coming out and saying so! And, best of all, you're kind and good and generous enough to write letters about it—letters to my Pufnstuf show, letters to the TV network that runs the show, letters to Sid and Marty Krofft (the producers), and—best of all—letters to me!

If you think about it for a moment, it will be easy for you to understand how very, very much that means to me. You see, I'm an English boy who—though I work on TV and in musical shows in my native England—has never enjoyed the thrill of being a star in my own country. Of course, Oliver! was well received and Mark Lester and I got a lot of mention in the English press for our performances. But it wasn't like—well, if you're in show business, like the way you dream it can be.

Anyway, I came to America and started doing a TV series. Oliver! was released about that time and then, best of all, you came into my life! Though I'm 17 years old, there's a part of me that will always be a "little boy." There's an area in me that's a bit insecure, a part of me that's not quite sure. I've never talked about it, but—well, it's not been easy. I'm sure you understand if you're a bit shy yourself, or if you've ever had what the "Professor types" call a bit of an inferiority complex. I mean, we all need a pat on the back once in awhile—now, don't we?

Like I said, you came along and not only gave me the pat on the back I needed so badly—you actually lifted me off my feet and helped catapult me toward what I hope will be a really satisfying career in show business—for both of us! Because American girls aren't afraid to show and demonstrate their interest, care, love and affection for a performer, they do the kind of things that make that performer want to go on and on to the top and be a star—just for them!

But, more than that, what I really want is to meet you! Since America is so big and, at the moment, I can't travel all about it, it won't be easy for us to get together. So I'm going to need all the help you can give me!

For instance, during the month of May, I'll be recording in Hollywood, California. Capitol studios there are located in the Capitol Tower at Hollywood and Vine—so if you happen to be in the neighborhood, please, please drop by and ask for me. If the receptionist doesn't understand, bring along this copy of 16 and that'll help to explain what you mean. If I'm recording, I should be at work no later than 10 o'clock in the morning and we should finish no later than 10 o'clock at night. If you can't drop by, try to call (please don't call collect, cos they won't accept the charges). The number is 213-HO 2-6252. If you can't drop by or call, write a letter. You can write a letter to me at the Capitol address.

BACK TO PUFNSTUF

Early in June, we start shooting the Pufnstuf segments (at Paramount studios) for the forthcoming September viewings. So that means as of around June 1, I'll be at this address—5451 Marathon Street in Hollywood, California. When we shoot Pufnstuf, I'm at work at 7 o'clock in the morning and I'm usually there until 6 or 7 o'clock at night. If you can't drop by (and I hope you can), then try to find time to call me. The number at the Marathon Street address is 213-463-0100. If I'm not at the studio when you come by or call, then try finding me at the office of Sid and Marty Krofft at 100 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, California, or at their other office at 11347 Vanowen Street, N. Hollywood, California. The phone number at the Krofft Universal City office is 213-985-4321 and the one at the Vanowen Street office is 213-985-2805.

We'll be shooting Pufnstuf through June, July and August, and—at the moment—I plan to remain in Hollywood through November. That means my mum, dad and brother Arthur will be coming over to live with me. And that means we'll be looking for a new house of our very own in Hollywood! At this time, of course, I don't exactly know where it will be located—so stay tuned to 16 and 16 SPEC for further reports!

Now that you know where and how to find me so that I can meet you, listen closely while I tell you how much I'd like to get to know you!

FOR THE REST OF WHAT JACK WANTS TO TELL YOU—FLIP TO PAGE 58!

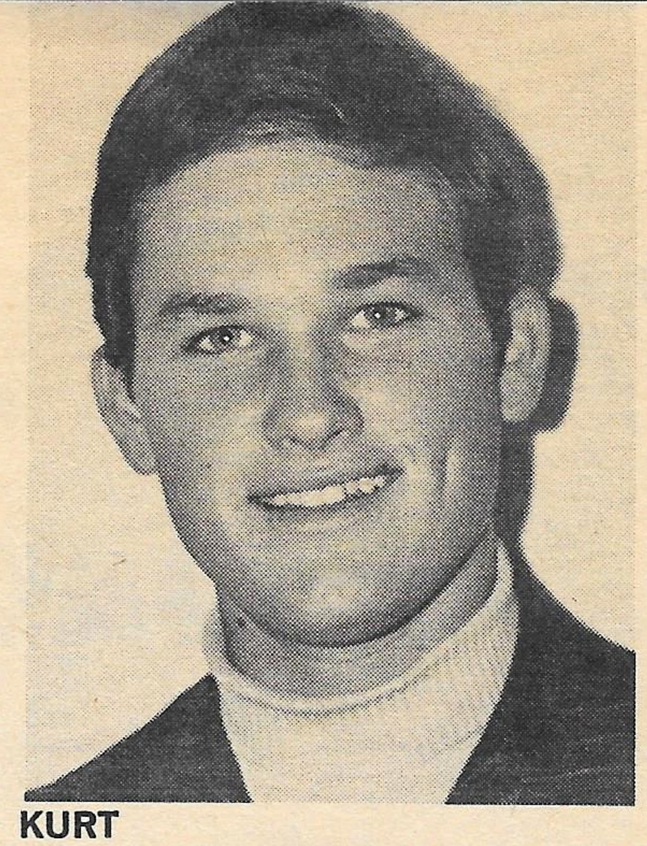

MOVIE TIME

Kurt Russell and Jon Provost share the screen in one of the wildest chase scenes since the Keystone Kops in the fantastic finale of Walt Disney's The Computer Wore Tennis Shoes. If you've seen the movie you'll know what we mean! (And if you haven't—what are you waiting for?) Computer is jam-packed with laughs, thrills and sighs—and the chase sequence is sure to have you sittin' on the edge of your seat! . . . Don't-chadare miss United Artists' Halls Of Anger when it wings your way at the end of May. It's a thrilling drama about a turbulent, modern-day high school—and it's filled with new faces! It stars Calvin Lockhart in the role of a high school teacher and Jeff Bridges (Beau Bridges' younger brother) in the role of one of the students. Halls Of Anger is as contemporary as today's newspaper headlines—and you won't forget it for a long, long time. You can write to Calvin Lockhart and Jeff Bridges at United Artists, 729 Seventh Avenue, New York, N.Y. (Be sure to put "I'm a 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope!)

Lee Majors, who starred in a TV series of yesteryear The Big Valley, does a stand-out acting job in Columbia's The Liberation Of L. B. Jones. It's a controversial movie that is sure to raise some eyebrows! You can write to Lee at Gershenson and Associates, 120 El Camino Drive, Suite 206, Beverly Hills, Calif. (Be sure to put "I'm a 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope!) . . . Kim Darby seems to be one of the busiest young actresses around. She scored a big hit with movie fans in her first two movies, Paramount's True Grit and Avco-Embassy's Generation—and she'll soon be seen in two more starring roles. Look for Kim in Paramount's Norwood (with Glen Campbell and football star Joe Namath) and in MGM's new movie about campus demonstrations The Strawberry Statement. Kim's acting is kolossal!! . . . Dean Stockwell grew a moustache for his role in A.I.P.'s thriller-chiller The Dunwich Horror. If you like to shiver and shake, you won't want to miss this frightening flicker when it creeps into your local theatre! It's sure to make you nibble your fingernails! . . . You can see Warren (Bonnie And Clyde) Beatty in the role of a piano player who has a compulsion to gamble in 20th Century-Fox's The Only Game In Town. Guess who Warren's leading lady is in this dramatic film? Elizabeth Taylor, that's who! (Gee, wonder what Richard Burton said about that?)

Because of its rating, you might not be able to see the controversial new Warner Bros. movie Woodstock when it plays at your local theatre—but you can listen to it! The soundtrack LP from the film is available on Cotillion Records (featuring the music of The Who, Ten Years After, John Sebastian, Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Jimi Hendrix, Sly and the Family Stone, Country Joe and the Fish and others) so give your ears a treat! . . . Speaking of Country Joe and the Fish, you'll soon be seeing them in a new movie called Zachariah. It's a "rock-western" and it will be comin' your way in the very near future! . . . Congratulations to Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid for winning the Best Musical Score Written For A Motion Picture award from the National Academy Of Recording Arts And Sciences. Same goes to Midnight Cowboy for winning the Best Instrumental Theme award!

BOBBY'S SECRET SON

At last it can be told — Bobby Sherman has a blond-haired, blue-eyed, six-year-old bundle of joy whose name is Bobby too!

"Big Bobby"

"Little Bobby"

YOU ALL KNOW that Bobby Sherman is a very talented singer, actor and all around super-star. You even know quite a lot about Bobby's personal likes and dislikes and about his private life, after reading the many stories Bobby has confided to you right here in 16 Magazine and in 16 SPEC. But there is one thing you don't know—something that's been a big secret till now. Bobby Sherman has a son!

Now don't jump to any conclusions and don't get upset! Bobby isn't hiding a wife and a baby from his faithful fans! The truth is—Bobby Sherman is not even married! His secret son is a beautiful little boy—who happens to be Bobby's one and only "godson"!!

Being a "godfather" is quite an honor. And it's especially meaningful to Bobby cos he loves children and wants to one day settle down and raise a family of his own. So having a godson is the next best thing to having a little boy of his own—and needless to say Bobby Sherman is very proud of his godson and loves him very much. And who can blame him? For the blond-haired blue-eyed six-year-old bundle of dynamite has brought much happiness and warmth into the sometimes lonely life of Bobby Sherman. Not only that—but Bobby's godson just happens to be named "Bobby" too!

UNCLE BOBBY

Little Bobby's mother is Bobby Sherman's only sister Darlene. Darlene has four children altogether—Debra "Debbie" Lynn (14); Michael Wayne (12); Mary-Ann Elizabeth (8); and Robert "Little Bobby" Craig (6). That means Bobby is the baby's uncle as well as his godfather! Of course, Bobby dearly loves all four of his nieces and nephews—each and every one of Darlene's wonderful children is extra-special to him. It's Little Bobby, though, who in addition to being Bobby's godson—is also Bobby's "lucky mascot"!

HIS LUCKY MASCOT?

If you think it's silly for Bobby to regard Little Bobby as a mascot—listen to this: A "mascot" is a person, animal or object that brings good luck—and that's just what Little Bobby has done for Big Bobby!

Bobby's good luck began on the very day Little Bobby was born—which, by the way, was only two days before Bobby Sherman's own birthday in 1964. Bobby had been hoping that his godchild would share his birthday, July 22nd, but the baby had other ideas and was born on July 20th. And as it turned out, in addition to being the birthdate of his godson—July 20, 1964, was a very lucky day for Bobby Sherman career-wise! For on that very day, Bobby was signed as a regular for ABC-TV's Shindig!

Before Shindig, Bobby Sherman was feeling down on his luck. He thought about giving up his dreams of being a star and settling for a different career—even though show business was and is his first love. Well, that day and that lucky break of being signed for Shindig was a turning point (for the better) in Bobby's life. And although it may have been just a coincidence that Little Bobby was born on that day—Bobby truly feels that his godson is his lucky mascot. And no one can convince him otherwise!

LIKE FATHER—LIKE SON?

Bobby and Little Bobby seem to have quite a bit in common. They have the same first name· they just missed sharing the same birthdate (even though they are both "moon children"—born under the astrological sign of Cancer); and they look very much alike too. Little Bobby even has beautiful, big blue eyes —just like his godfather! To watch Little Bobby at play—well, it's like seeing Bobby Sherman growing up all over again!

Little Bobby loves to sing, dance and play-act. Would you believe that this mischievous little boy enjoys playing with his older brother's drums, guitar and bugle? Well, he does! And do you know who else liked musical instruments at an early age? Bobby Sherman—that's who! So don't be surprised if ten years from now Little Bobby decides that he wants to pursue a show-business career! They say talent runs in a family and if that's true, all of Darlene's children must be super-talented—since Bobby Sherman is their uncle!

KEEPING IN TOUCH

Because Bobby lives in California, and Darlene and her family live in Maryland, Bobby rarely gets to see his little godson. It bothers Bobby that he isn't able to spend time with his godson or be able to watch him growing up. In fact, Bobby often wishes he could take time off to visit Darlene and her family, cos he loves them all so very much. Yet, even with the distance that separates them—Bobby is able to keep in close contact with his sister's family. That's because Bobby's mother (who lives near Bobby in California) talks to Darlene and the children on the telephone very often and keeps Bobby up-to-date on the family news and relays all the wonderful stories. You can imagine how heartwarming it is for Bobby when his mom tells him how Little Bobby sings to all of Bobby's records (his godson's favorite song is La La La) or that the baby won't miss his "Uncle Bobby" on Here Come The Brides each and every week! Little Bobby loves the show, thinks "Candy" is so pretty—and he's probably Bobby's biggest and best fan!

One day Bobby Sherman may very well have a son of his own, but you can be sure that even then his little godson (and all of Darlene's children—for that matter) will always have a very special, very loving place in Bobby's heart!

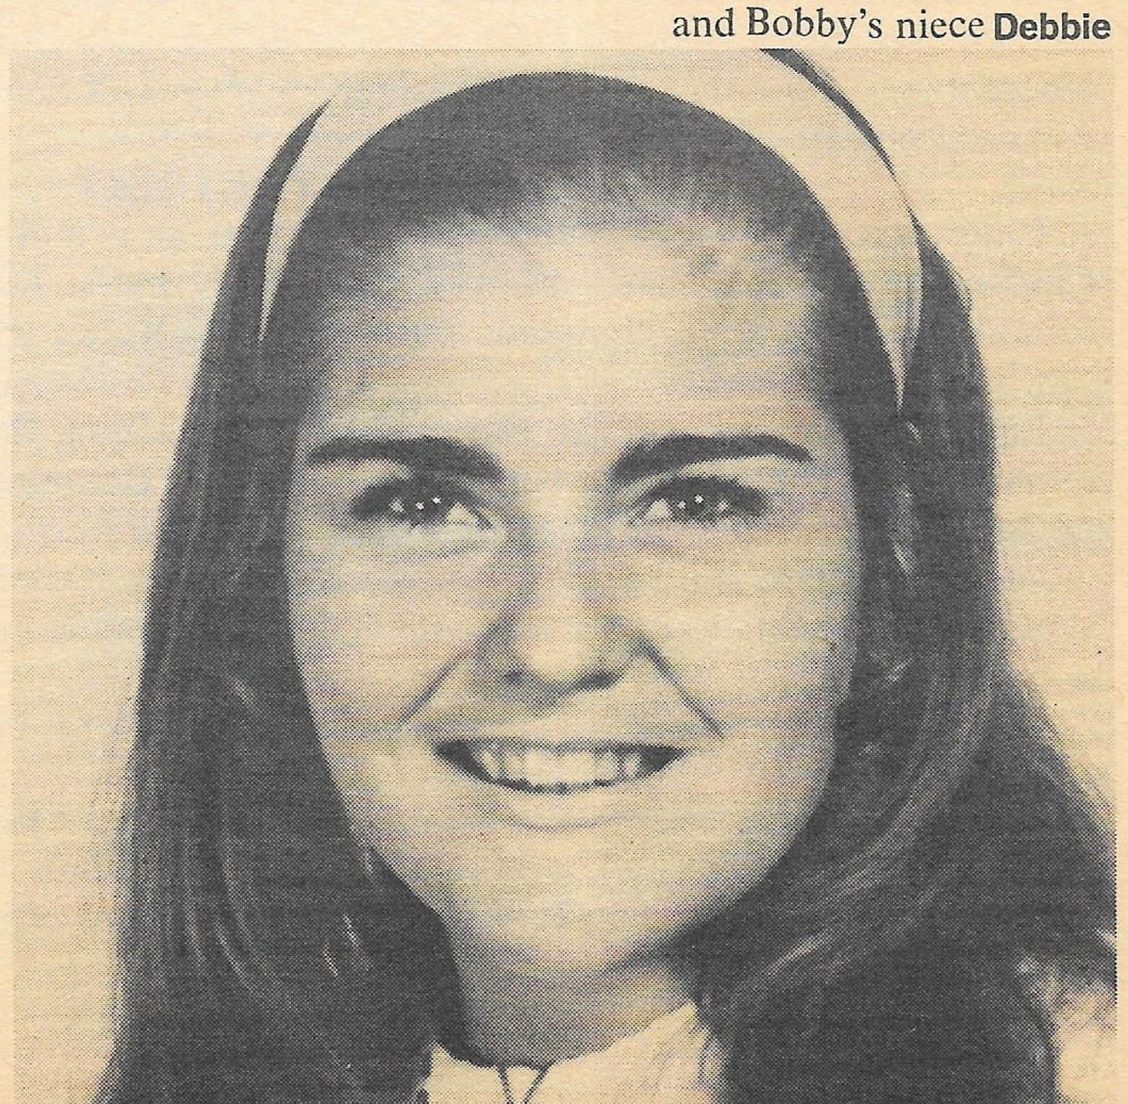

Mary-Ann—niece

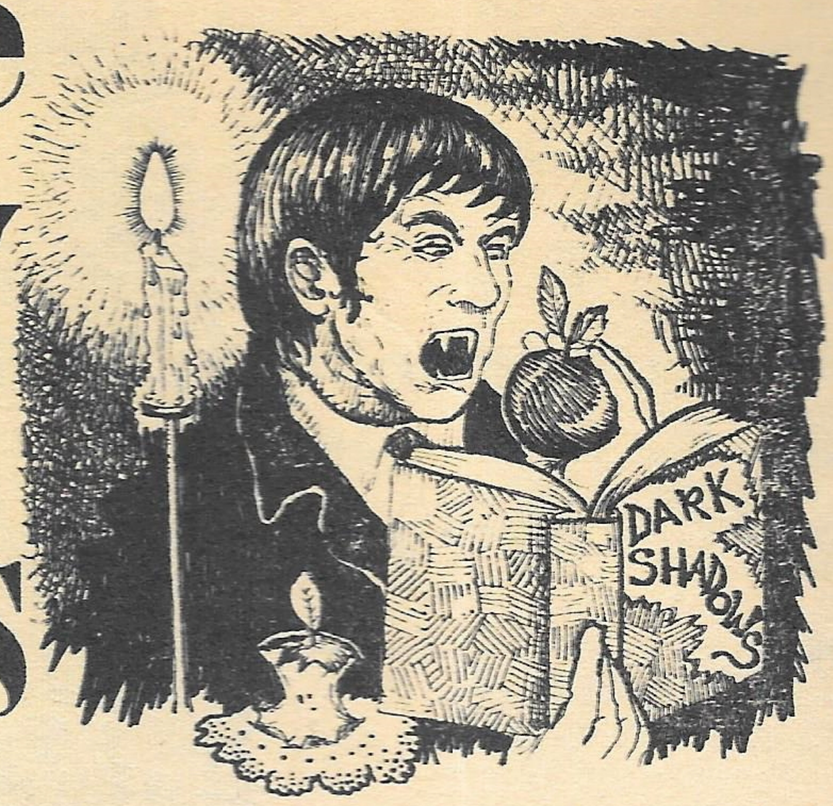

Michael—nephew

The Whole True Story of DARK SHADOWS

CHAPTER 17

MAGGIE has come to live at Collinwood. Elizabeth, under a spell cast by Cassandra, feels that Joe Haskell, Maggie's boy friend, is really Nathan Forbes, a person who has done terrible deeds in the past. Finally, Vickie convinces Elizabeth that Joe is not Nathan Forbes.

Meanwhile, Reverend Trask has taken Cassandra into the woods and tied her to a tree. He tells her that he knows she is really Angelique the witch. He walks around the tree and says a magical chant—holding his cross high in the air. Cassandra tells him that he is insane, but he puts the cross up to Cassandra's forehead and pleads to the godly spirits to help him remove her from the earth. As he kneels in prayer, Cassandra suddenly screams—and gradually her body begins to fade until she has vanished from the earth!

MISSING WITCH

The next day Roger is very distraught, telling Dr. Julia Hoffman that he cannot find Cassandra anywhere. The police are called and Julia goes to the old house to see Barnabas and tell him about Cassandra.

"There is only one way that we can know for sure if Cassandra is gone," Barnabas says, and they go down into the basement. Before they enter, Barnabas continues, "If Reverend Trask has won his battle, his skeleton will now be hanging back on the wall."

They open the door—and see that the skeleton is indeed there!

Meanwhile, Elizabeth has begun to act very strange. She insists on calling Julia "Countess Natalie Du Pres" and Roger by the name of "Joshua." Suddenly Elizabeth begins to relive the life of Naomi Collins, who lived at Collinwood in the late 1790's. Naomi died by her own hand. She took poison and then went to the tower room, where she left a note to her husband Joshua. When Elizabeth suddenly disappears. Barnabas and Julia decide to look for her in the tower room. When they get there, they find her—believing that she is Naomi and still under the evil spell cast by Angelique—about to die! Elizabeth is rushed to a hospital, where it is decided that she should be put in Wyndcliff Sanitarium—over Roger's adamant protests!

VANISHING PORTRAIT

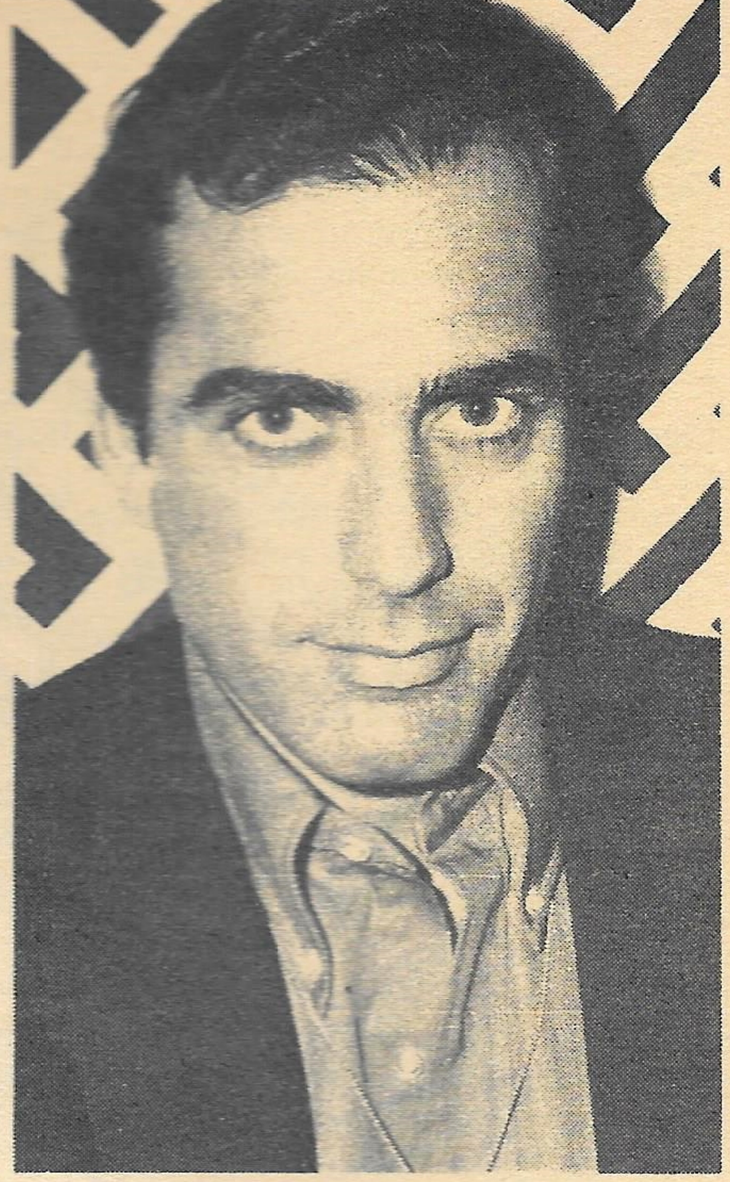

Later that evening, Barnabas tells Julia that he is still worried as to whether Cassandra really has been destroyed. He decides that he must destroy her portrait to make sure the act is complete, but when he searches for it in her room—it is nowhere to be found!

Later, Roger appears with the portrait, complaining that he must take it for retouching, as the colors are beginning to fade. As Barnabas and Julia look at the portrait of Angelique, they see that the picture is almost invisible!

Suddenly, there is a knock at the door. Barnabas hastens to see who is there. When he opens the door, a strange man—with a mischievous gleam in his eyes—is standing there.

"Good evening," he says. "I'm Cassandra's brother—Nicholas Blair."

Who is Nicholas Blair and what evil powers does he possess? Be sure to find out in the next chapter of The Whole True Story Of Dark Shadows in the August issue of 16!. It goes on sale June 23—so reserve your copy now!!

MIKE COLE

Angel OR DEVIL?

"If Michael is just another one of those selfish, show-biz types, then I want to stop caring for him — now. But if Michael is a good person, then I want to know the truth about him so that I can understand him and love him more."

Dear 16,

I recently read that Mike Cole has been going steady (more or less) with the same girl for six years*! At first, I really got mad. I didn't know whether to hate* her or him*—her, for "stealing" the only guy I've ever really loved (I may not have met Mike Cole but, believe me, I love him!); or him, for* not telling us he has a steady girl and for not being loyal enough to that steady girl (after all, six years is a long time!) to at least openly admit that he loves her and to give her an engagement ring!

No one, including Michael, can say that it's none of my business, because although I'm just a fan, it's me and the millions of fans like me who have—quite frankly—helped to make Michael the star he is today. And, believe it or not, it is my deep love for Michael that moves me to write a letter like this. I'm writing because I care about him. I care about his past, his present and his future—and I care *whether he is happy or sad. If Michael is just another one of those callous, selfish, show-biz types, then I want to stop caring for him—*now, before he breaks my heart. But if Michael is (as I believe he is) a really good person, then I want to know the truth about him so that I can understand him and grow to love him even more. So, 16, I'm turning to you to ask my question. And my question is really a very simple one: What's the truth about Mike Cole? Is he a devil—or is he an angel?

With love from,
A Girl Who Loves Mike Cole

SINCE MIKE COLE emerged as the handsome young star of ABC-TV's smash-hit The Mod Squad, he has been both honored and bedeviled by his swift rise to stardom. Because Michael is a terribly complex young man, it is difficult to spell out in words on paper just what sort of person he really is and exactly what motivates and drives him. But after a year and a half of all kinds of publicity, the real Michael Cole is beginning to filter through—and the real Michael Cole is quite a provocative and unusual person!

First off, Michael is very open and very secretive at the same time. On the one hand, he detests lying or evasive tactics—but on the other hand, he sincerely longs to keep his private life private. It took a few rude awakenings for Michael to comprehend the fact that a star's private life is at least partially public. He never talked about his first marriage and when it (and the fact that he and his former wife had had a baby girl from that marriage) was finally revealed to the public, he acknowledged that—yes, that was the truth. What he didn't acknowledge was that there was also a son born of that marriage! Later, when a reporter uncovered that fact and presented it to the public in a magazine story, Michael, once again, acknowledged the truth. Yes, he did have a son by his marriage.

Michael explained that his former wife had remarried sometime ago and that her present husband had legally adopted the two children (loving them as much as Michael did and being able to care for them, which—at the time—Michael couldn't do) and that he (Michael) felt that he had no right to let his past intrude upon their happy present. Though in his heart of hearts, Michael does long to see the children, he has—with great strength and fortitude—kept himself away so that they may continue to live happily without intrusions.

"STEADY" OR NOT?!

Now we come to Michael's "steady romance." It was quite awhile before Michael would admit that Paula Kelly Dickenson is the girl he has dated most often over the past six years. But, once again, Michael was caught in a dilemma. On the one hand, he does indeed see Paula regularly; but on the other hand, he also dates many, many other girls—and has even introduced a lot of those "other girls" as ". . . this is the present Mrs. Michael Cole!" — a deliberate put-on he enjoyed handing certain "snoopy" reporters.

Michael is right to insist that his private life should be private. But he is wrong to expect his fans not to care and not to want to know the whole truth about him. So the curtain has to be lifted—and behind it yet another facet of Michael Cole is revealed.

The fact is: Michael does love Paula. She is the girl who knew him when he was a "nobody." She is the girl who encouraged and helped him. She is the girl who watched him grow and develop—the girl who unselfishly gloried in his rising stardom. She is also the girl who shared with Mike the near-death tragedy of an auto accident just over a year ago. And she is the girl who has stood patiently and quietly on the sidelines while Michael has been photographed with other girls, has been seen around town dating other girls, and—off and on—has been having "swinging romances" with other girls. But the other fact is—Michael is not 100% sure of his love for Paula. It tears his heart out to know that she deeply loves him and not be able to reciprocate that love 100%. Paula has not hidden the fact that she would like to marry Michael—and Michael, because he cares so very much for her, cannot withhold from her the fact that he feels he isn't ready to settle down.

As Michael explains it, "I cannot make plans like that yet. If we married now, I'd hurt Paula more than I already have! I don't want to be a perennial bachelor—and I often do get very, very lonely. I hate going back to my cold, rented apartment at night. And I don't get a charge out of cooking for myself or taking care of the pad.

"But I also know," Michael continues, "that I want to be able to give Paula what she needs and deserves. Right now, I know that I'd be walking down the street some day and see some cute chick and want to go over and ask her for a date. That's just a natural fact. I'm sorry—but I can't help it. I don't want to stand before the altar and make a vow to Paula (or anyone else) that in my heart I know I might not be able to keep!"

I'M "GROWING UP"

After some thought, Michael goes on, "It's not that I'm afraid to marry. I look forward to marrying one day—and I can't wait to have a whole gang of kids. But, right now, I'm too busy 'growing up' and settling things with my career. I keep erratic hours, and there are lots of pressures and—well, I still feel like I'm in the 'formative stage'."

As the days, weeks and months go by, Michael continues to see Paula fairly regularly and also to date other girls. He finds meeting a new girl, getting to know her, dating her and sharing experiences with her exciting and gratifying. For Michael, it's not an "ego trip" or another notch in his belt—he genuinely loves all girls and really digs sharing his life with more than one person.

So, at the moment, that's the way it is with Michael Cole. In the end, it's up to you—all of you "girls who love Michael Cole" —to decide what sort of person Michael really is. What do you think? Is he a devil—or an angel?

GET IT T

A Soul-ful singer, if ever there was one (!), David Soul sings out his new Dot single This Train on a swinging segment of Get It Together.

What a talented family the "Bolt Brothers" are! Here's Bobby Sherman making hearts stop by singing his latest Metromedia smash Easy Come, Easy Go.

Rick Nelson (center) and his group the Stone Canyon Band made the Get It Together scene recently, singing their Decca hit Easy To Be Free.

When super-group Smith performed their new Dunhill single Take A Look Around You, the live audience and the TV viewers just grooved and grooved!

Oliver, the musician with the Midas touch (everything he records turns to gold!) got it all together for his fans when he sang his latest Crewe super-smash Angelica.

The lights dimmed and the mood turned romantic when magnetic Mark Lindsay sang Arizona and his new Columbia hit Miss America. Mark will soon be back on Get It Together with the Raiders!

Another groovy guest was John Hartford, that super-talented songwriter and singer. John performed his RCA hits Natural To Be Gone and Like Unto A Mockingbird—and he was great!

Those consistent chart-toppers, Three Dog Night, also made a guest appearance on Get It Together, singing up a storm with their latest Dunhill rocker Celebrate.

Groovin' together for some fab musical moments were the Grass Roots,who jived up one recent Saturday show doing their Dunhill super-hits Heaven Knows and Walking Through The Country.

MY LIFE IN PIX by MICHAEL STROKA

PART TWO

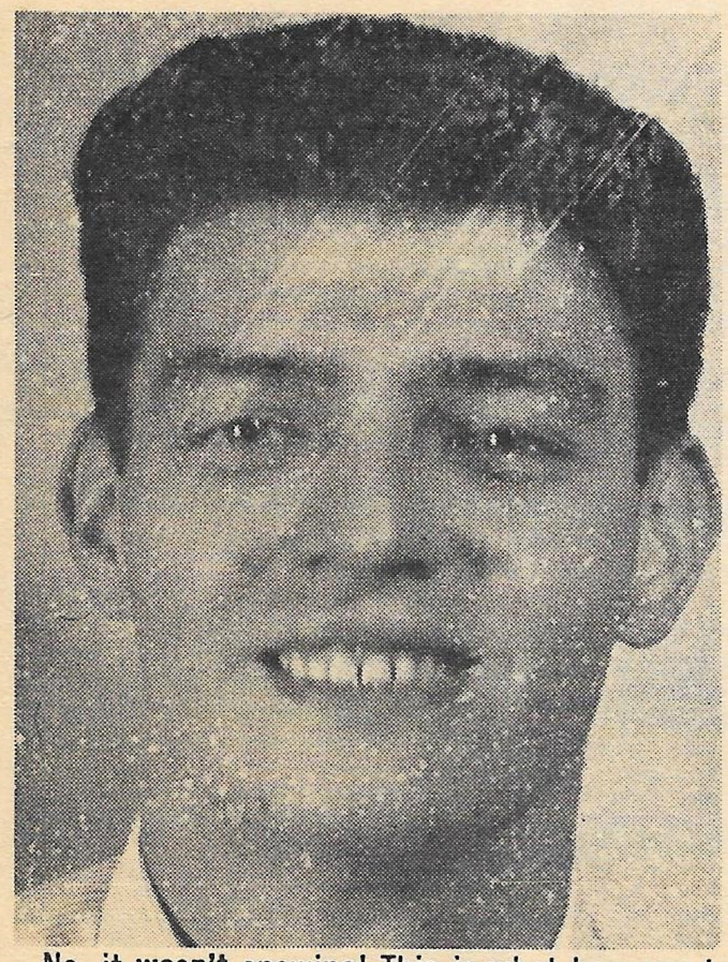

HI! It's me—Michael Stroka—back with some more mementos from my personal "Memory-ville'!' For instance, did you know that once upon a time I was the "victim" of a shotgun wedding?! If you don't believe it—just look below!!

When I was 18 years old, I appeared at the Indiana Summer Theatre in Indiana, Pennsylvania (Jimmy Stewart's home town—just outside of Pittsburgh) in the play The Pursuit Of Happiness. I was a British redcoat and——When a rebel daddy caught his daughter and me in the cellar together, he insisted that we wed! That was quite all right with me (that's me in the center of the picture, by the way) since his daughter was quite a cutie!

No, it wasn't snowing! This is what happens to one of those "three for 25¢ booth-type pix when you let it lie around in a dresser drawer for a few years! I was 20 and had just decided to go to Hollywood!

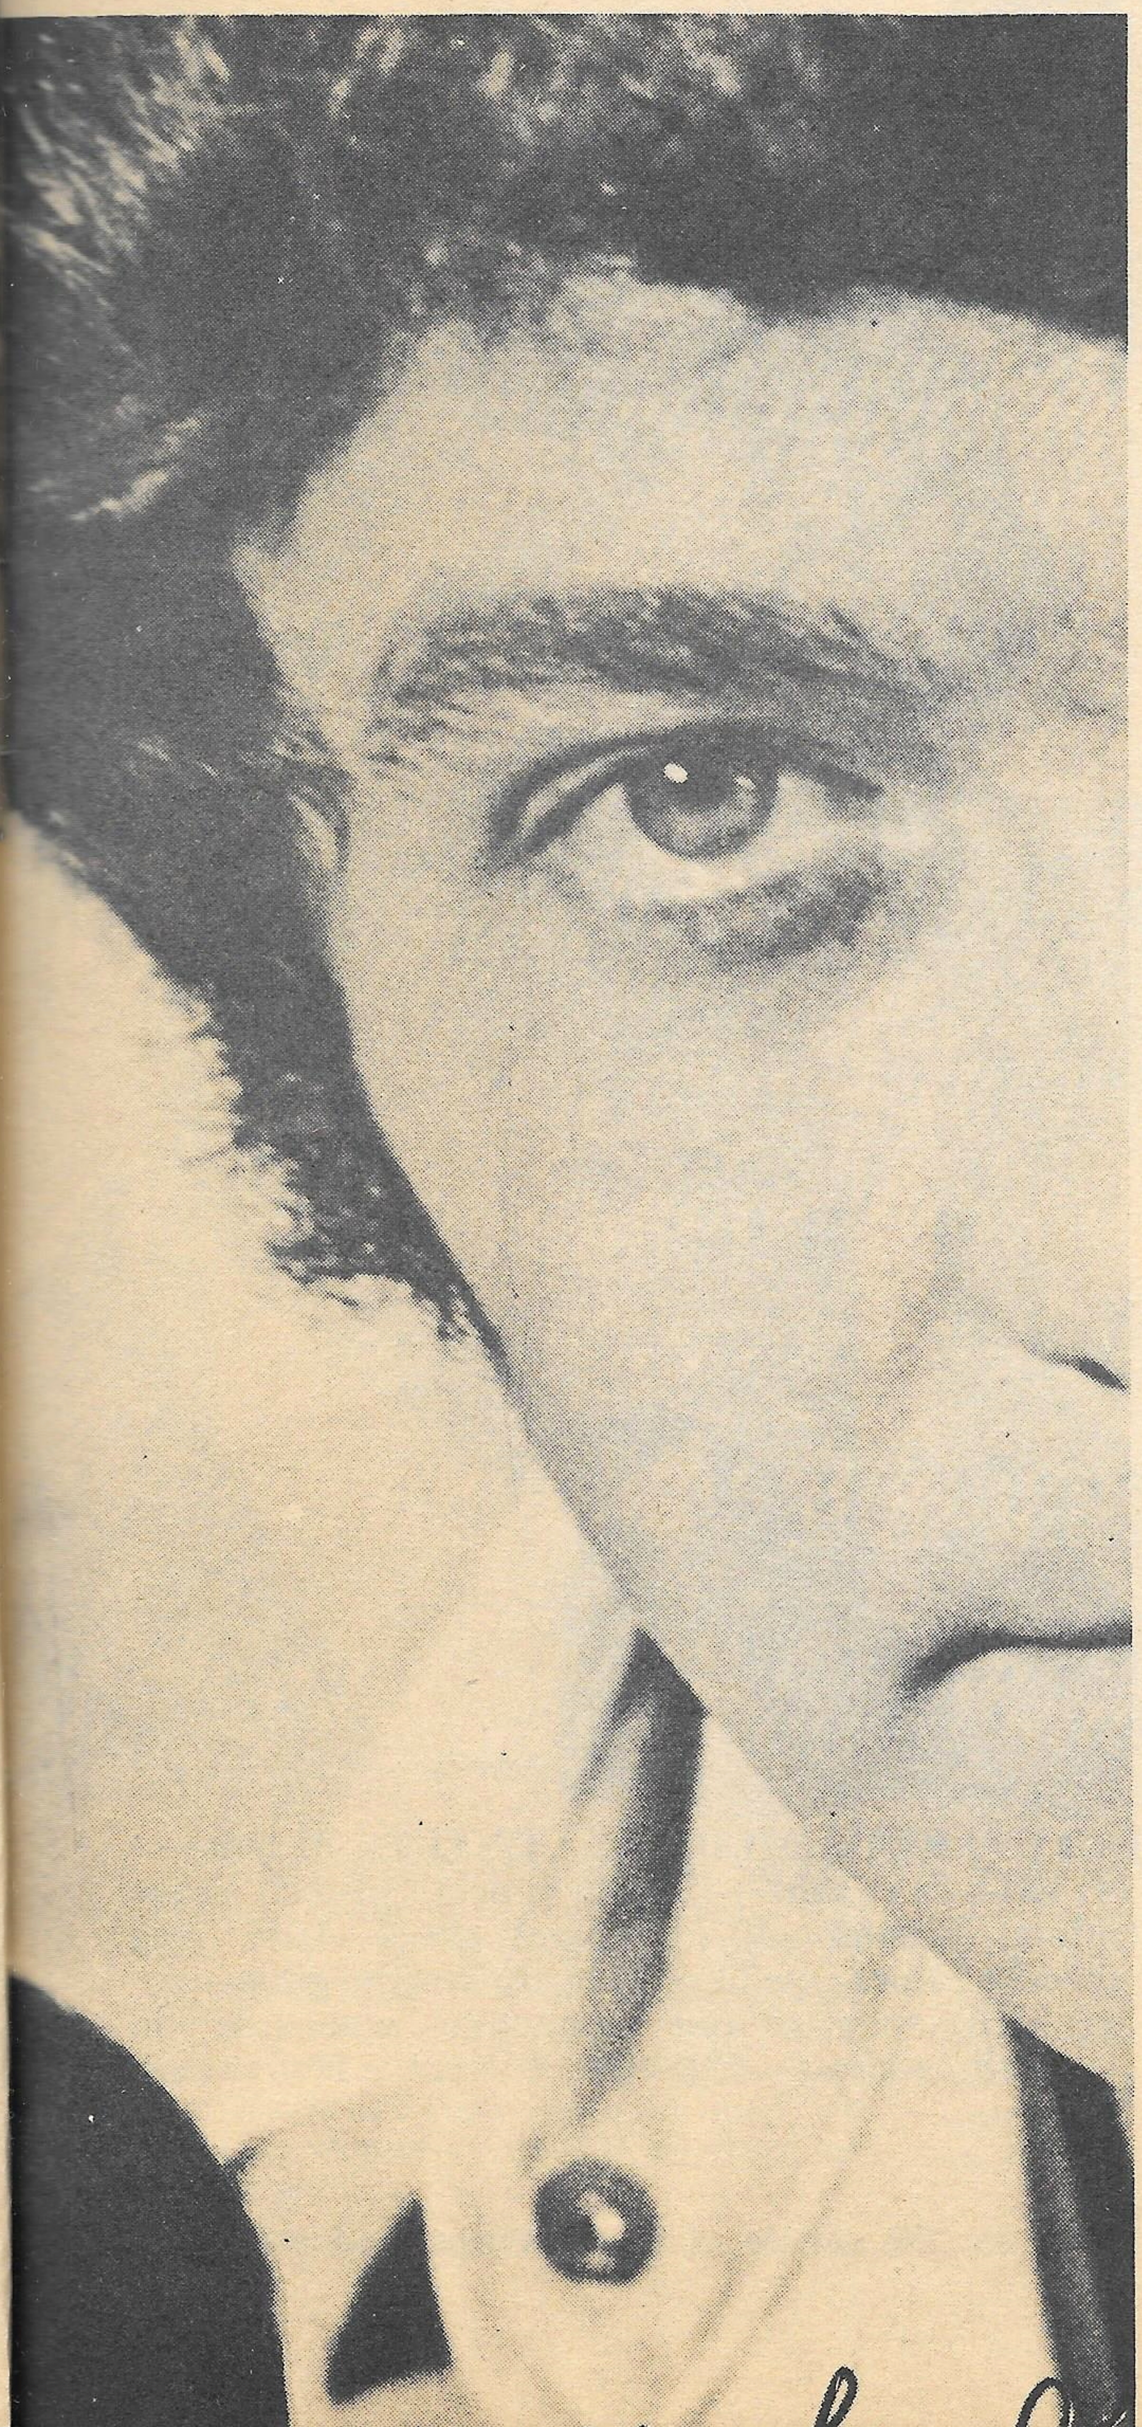

Ah, how dramatic! Well, Michael Stroka made it to Hollywood and this picture was taken by a buddy I lived with in the Malibu Beach section of Los Angeles.

Ah, this is much better! Twenty-one-year-old Michael Stroka presents his very first "publicity" picture! I presented it to all of the agents in Hollywood—with absolutely no results!!

Whoops – ran out of space again! Please meet me in the August issue of 16 – which goes on sale June 23 – and I'll continue with Part Three of "My Life In Pix"!!

16's All-Star Birthday & Gift Guide

HAVE YOU EVER wondered when your favorite star's birthday is, what kind of present he would like to have—and how to make certain that it is mailed to a place where he will be sure to get it? Well, wonder no more! Here is full info on all the stars who have birthdays coming up within the next 30 days. The guide includes measurements, favorite gifts and colors, and a correct address—PLUS a complete horoscope for all you Gemini's.

GEMINI—May 21 to June 21.
BIRTH STONE—Beryl or Aquamarine.
BIRTH FLOWER—Lily-of-the-Valley.
CHARACTER—Gemini is the most versatile sign in the Zodiac. People who are born under this sign have a restless nature and live to investigate and communicate. They are driven by a compulsion to know what everything is all about and their thought processes never seem to sleep. Gemini people are quick with their hands, light on their feet and possess intellect, energy and skill. They can play almost any position in the "game of life" and play it well! They can charm the crowd, con the umpire and talk the opposition into striking out Gemini people can easily do more than one thing at a time. They believe in the importance of thought in man's evolving. They need lots of space, stimulation and speed, and like to be with people who are as "sharp" as they are.

LOVE ASPECTS—If you've got a crush on a Gemini, you've got to stay "on your toes"! Gemini people are changeable. They can be sweet and understanding one moment—and grouchy and inconsiderate the next. They seem to be constantly in motion—and sometimes it's a tough job just to keep up with them! Gemini people can be fickle. They find it hard to relate to just one thing—or one person. When the "right" girl comes along, Gemini males stop their flirting ways and become loving and faithful companions. Gemini people get along best with people born under the signs of Aquarius and Libra, but if you were born under another sign don't give up hope! Remember that we all have the power to shape our own destinies —with or without the help of the stars! A love affair with a Gemini will be exciting, stimulating, fun and different. You'll see new things, meet new people and visit new places. If a Gemini falls in love with you—the experience will be anything but dull!!*

CHRISTOPHER PENNOCK (DARK SHADOWS): Birthday—June 7; hat—7½; shirt—15½-inch neck/34-inch sleeve (or Medium); sweater—42 (or Large); shoes—11B; ring—11; favorite colors—beige, blue and red; favorite gifts—he likes anything at all to do with the occult, tarot cards, astrology and strange happenings; address—ABC-TV, 433 W. 53rd St., New York, N.Y.

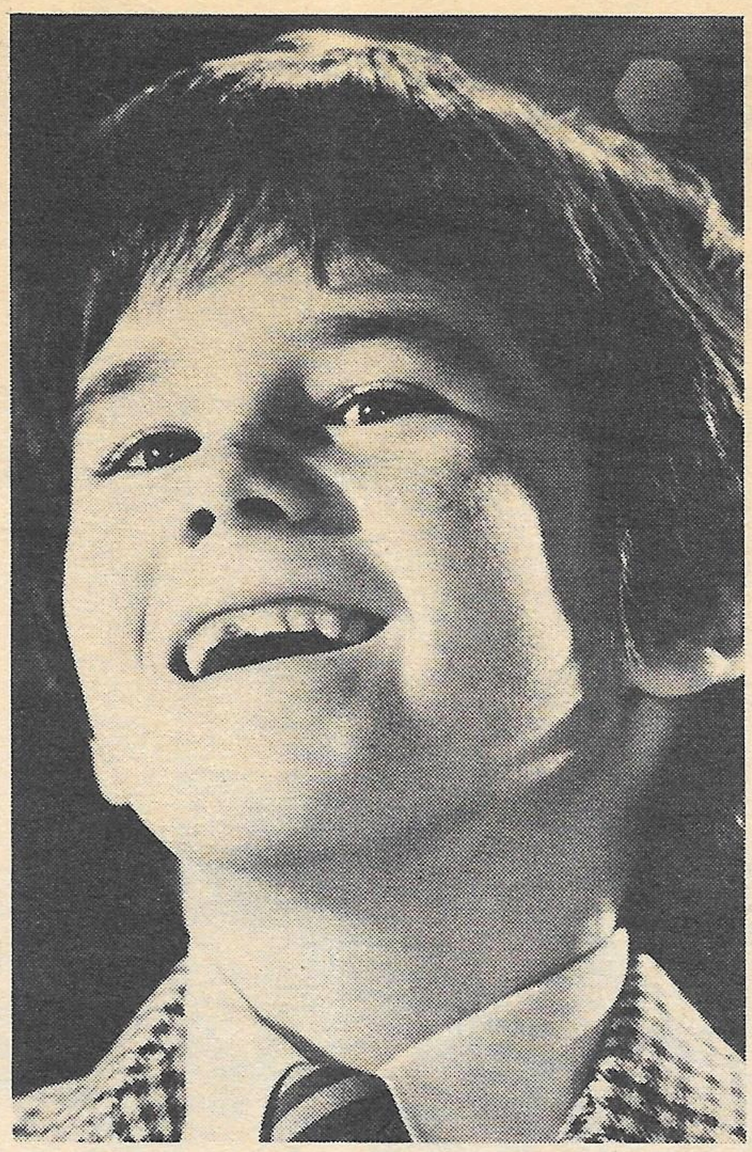

CHAD EVERETT (MEDICAL CENTER): Birthday—June 11; hat—7½; shirt—15½-inch neck/33-inch sleeve (or Medium); sweater—40 (or Large); shoes—10½; ring—10; favorite colors—he likes them all; favorite gifts—pictures and books about antique automobiles, and cards you make yourself; address—CBS-TV, TV City, Hollywood, Calif.

WOODSTOCK

(As recorded by Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young—Taylor & Reeves—on Atlantic Records.)

Well, I came upon a child of God.
He was walkin' along the road,
And I asked him, Tell me where are you goin'?
This he told me—
Said, I'm goin' down to Yasgurs' farm,
Goin' to join in a rock and roll band,
Got to get back to the land
And set my soul free.

(CHORUS)
We are stardust, we are golden,
We are part of the devil's pardon,
And we've got to get ourselves back to the garden.

Well, then, can I walk beside you?
I have come to lose the smog.
And I feel myself a cog in somethin' turnin'.
And maybe it's the time of year,
And maybe it's the time of man,
And I don't know who I am,
But life is for learnin'.

(REPEAT CHORUS TWICE)
By the time we got to Woodstock,
We were half a million strong.
And everywhere was the song and a celebration.
And I dreamed I saw the bomber death planes
Riding shotgun in the sky
Turning into butterflies
Above our nation.

(REPEAT CHORUS)

BABY HOLD ON

(As recorded by the Grass Roots on Dunhill Records. Lead sung by Rob Grill.)

You're such a natural woman,
But you're so far away, baby.
Your love is drivin' me crazy,
I'm comin' home.

I know you can't live without love,
I know you're feelin' so lonely,
Save all your sweet lovin' for me,
I'm comin' home—I'm comin' home.

(CHORUS)
You gotta hold on, babe,
I'm comin' home,
So, baby, hold on.
Don't throw your love away,
Cos I'm comin' home.
So, baby, hold on—
Baby, hold on.

You're such a natural woman,
You know my feelings about you.
You know I can't live without you,
I'm comin' home.

I'm sorry I ever left you,
I thought the free life was better.
I know you can't wait forever,
But, baby, hold on—
I'm comin' home.

(REPEAT CHORUS, ADLIB, REPEAT CHORUS & END)

LAST OF THE WINE

(As recorded by the Robbs on Dunhill Records. Lead sung by Dee Robb.)

Remember when springtime came—
How it used to be.
We were so young and so new,
And our hearts so free.
Over and under and turn around—
Tryin' everything,
Well, well, I wish—
She was right along side of me.

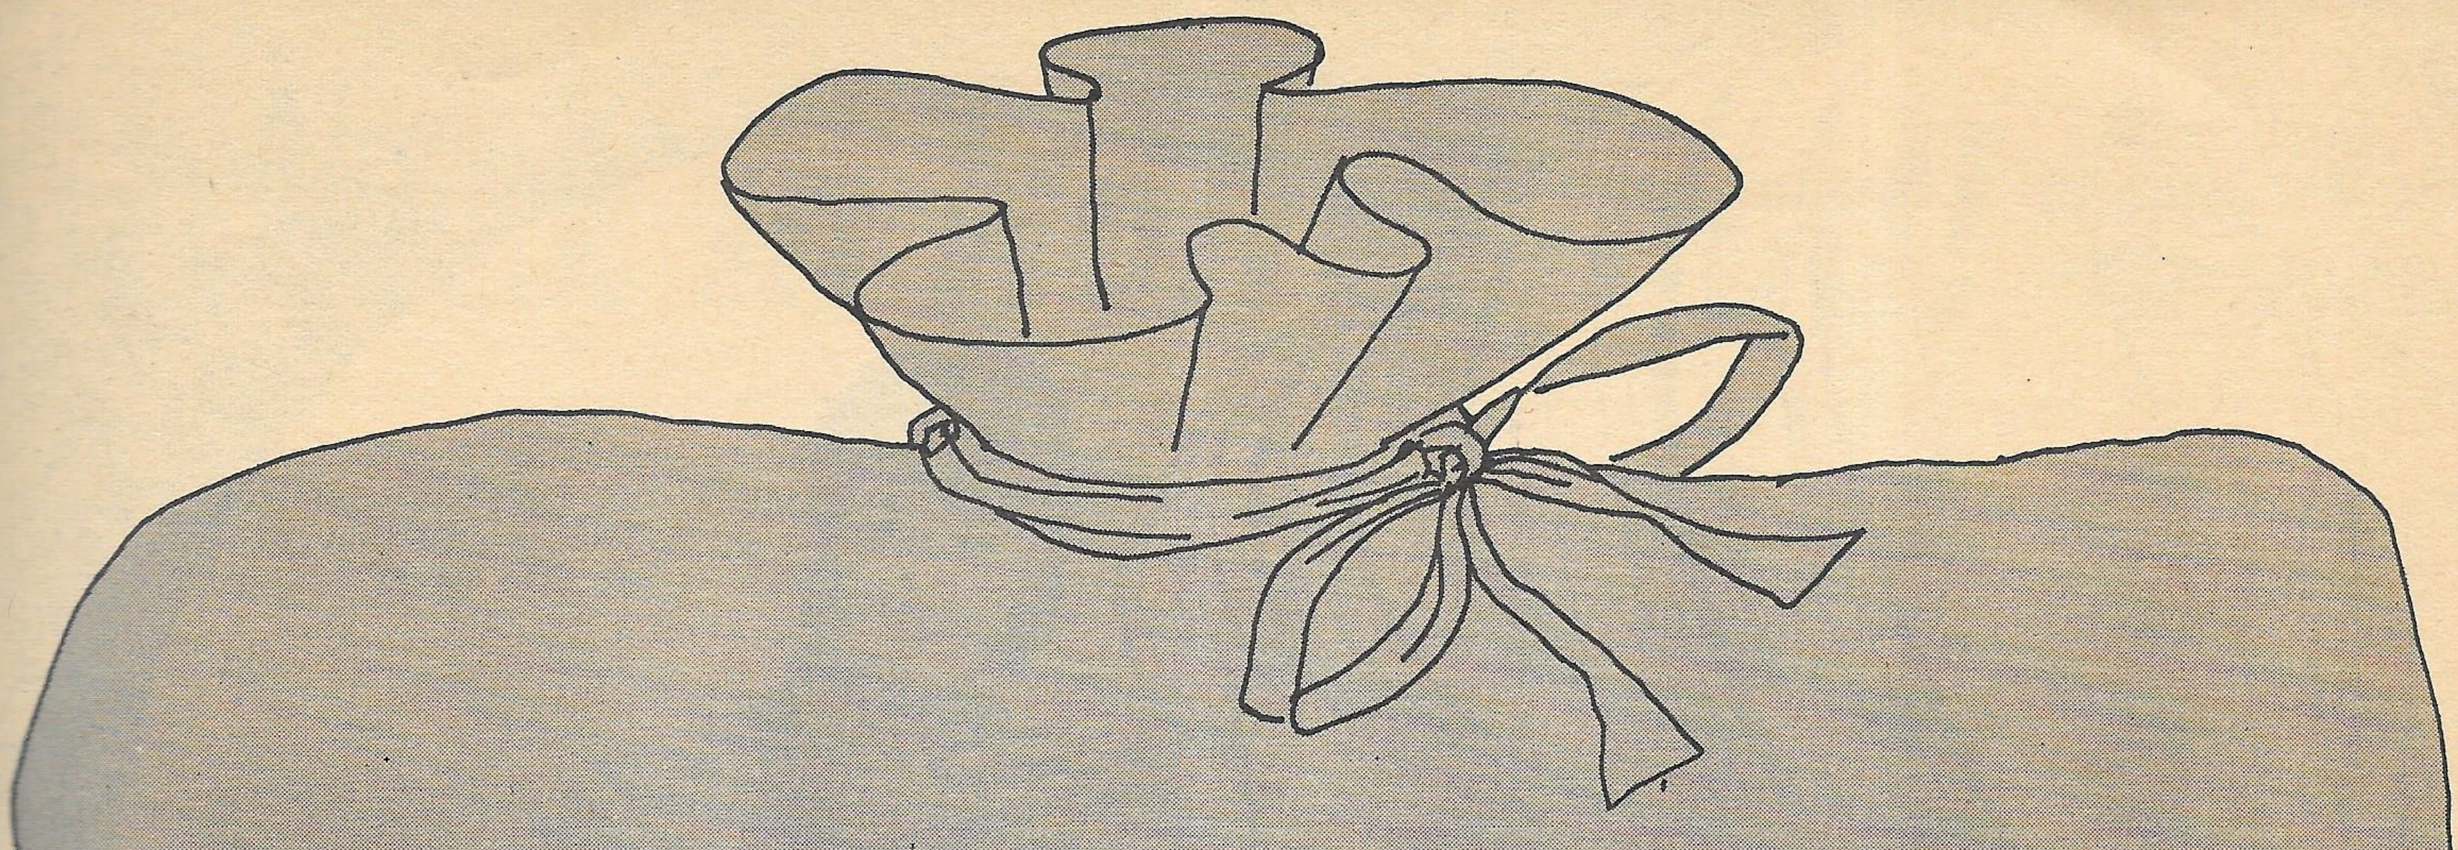

(CHORUS)
I should have known at the time,
I didn't see any sign,
It was the last of the wine.

Laughin' and lovin' and runnin'—
Everywhere we go,
Dancing on a moonlit beach—
To the radio.
That's how the summer passed,
And the autumn slowly came.
We should have held on tight—
But we didn't know.

(REPEAT CHORUS)
If I would have seen what I had—
I'd been satisfied.
The grass was greener then,
On the other side.
I told her I'd hurry home,
But you know I lied—
You know I lied.

(REPEAT CHORUS THREE TIMES & FADE OUT)

After a bit, Bobby asked, "Who's Craig?"

CEECEE in Hollywood! Chapter 15: "BOY TROUBLE"

SYNOPSIS: When Ceecee, Bobby and Aunt Tillie get together at Aunt Tillie's house, they finally have time to hold their "private" conversation about Tillie's mysterious phone calls and visitors.

AUNT TILLIE looked down and closed her eyes as Ceecee and Bobby stood questioningly in front of her.

"Ceecee," Tillie said at last, "I guess I'll have to tell you the whole truth. It's about your parents—and a boy named Craig."

At the mention of the words "parents" and "Craig," Ceecee stiffened and her face filled with alarm.

Aunt Tillie continued in a low voice. "Your parents are the ones who had the police looking for you and—" she hesitated for a moment, then went on, "—and Craig—well, he's on the way to Los Angeles."

So much happened so fast that Ceecee felt oddly as though she were watching a speeded-up movie. In her mind's eye, she could see her mother's face, her father's face and her little brother Timmy's face flash by—followed quickly by the handsome, sensitive face of Craig Hollister, the boy next door, whom she had never quite forgotten. At that same split second, out of the corner of her eye, Ceecee could see Bobby's expression change. The warmth seemed to vanish from his face and his mouth tightened a bit. All at once, Tillie and Bobby seemed far away. In fact, everything seemed far away. Ceecee felt as though she were looking at the room through the wrong end of a telescope. She felt vague and a bit dizzy.

"Watch out!" Bobby suddenly exclaimed and, lunging forward, he caught Ceecee as she fell. Bobby gently placed her on the sofa as Tillie rushed over.

"Oh, honey, what's the matter?" Tillie asked with great concern.

"I'm sorry," Ceecee murmured. "I felt for a minute like maybe I was—"

"I know," Tillie chimed in. "Like you were about to faint. Well, I certainly don't blame you. But look, Ceecee," Tillie's voice became stronger, but her tone was consoling, "things really aren't as bad as you think. Try to pull yourself together. I'll make some tea and then I'll tell you and Bobby the whole story."

AS TILLIE left the room, Bobby sat on the sofa beside Ceecee. He didn't look into her eyes but rather sat a bit hunched over, staring down at his hands. Ceecee, numb and speechless, stared at Bobby, her heart filling with dread.

After a bit, without looking up, Bobby asked, "Who's Craig?"

Ceecee had to cough before she could find her voice. At last she said, "He's just a boy." She faltered, "Well, he used to live next door to me back home and—".

When she paused, Bobby said, "Oh, I see. Well, you don't have to explain."

"Bobby," Ceecee heard herself exclaiming as she leaned forward and impulsively placed her hand on his. "It's not what you think!"

At that moment, Aunt Tillie walked into the room.

Bobby reached over and handed her his handkerchief.

"Hi-ho, kiddies," she called out cheerfully. "Here's a tray of tea for all of us. Now you can sit back and listen to my story."

Before Tillie started talking, Bobby looked up at Ceecee and gave her a little wink. It was as though he were trying to say, "Don't worry, Ceecee."

But Ceecee's heart was filled with pain.

"Look, Bobby," Tillie began, "you know Ceecee's story and I know her story. One day, in the town where she comes from, her parents went out and her little brother wasn't home. Ceecee decided to go and browse up in the attic for a bit, and while she was there she accidentally discovered a little metal chest. Inside it, she found a document. It was a certificate of adoption and Ceecee's name was on it."

After a pause, Tillie went on. "It's easy for someone on the outside to say what they would have done, but Ceecee was very hurt. She felt that she had been somehow deceived all the years of her youth. She loved her parents very much and still does, but that instant the only thing she wanted to do was run away."

As Tillie paused again, Ceecee said, "I guess it was the wrong thing to do, but I honestly didn't know what else to do. I couldn't think. I felt—well, all torn up inside."

Tillie smiled reassuringly, "It's O.K., honey," she said. She sighed and went on with her story.

"Anyway, Ceecee gathered up her life savings and hopped on an airplane to Los Angeles. Since she didn't know anywhere else to go, and she remembered reading about the Copper Skillet in 16, she went there, which turned out—I think—to be a very good thing. I dropped into the Copper Skillet for a bite and I saw this obviously lost and lonely little girl, and I took it on myself to make friends with her. Ceecee trusted me and told me her story. I thought about it all night that first night—while Ceecee slept here on this couch—and I decided that the best thing to do was to let her stay here and try to reach her parents."

Ceecee let out a gasp. "What!" she cried out.

"Now look, Ceecee," Aunt Tillie said firmly. "Don't jump to any conclusions till you hear the whole story. It's a good thing I did call your parents," Tillie went on, "for after I got the Bennetts' phone number through information —just at the moment I put the call through, Ceecee's mom and dad were getting ready to notify the Missing Persons Bureau. They had already spoken to their local police and —well, quite frankly, Ceecee, they were afraid you had been kidnapped and they were about to contact the federal authorities. I persuaded them not to. I convinced them that you were in safe hands—and I persuaded them not to come and take you home!"

Once again, Tillie paused. She lowered her eyes thoughtfully and then continued. "You see, Ceecee— I had this feeling that you needed to sort of be by yourself or on your own for a few days. I felt like you needed to find out what it was like to really miss your folks, to realize how great they are and—well, to discover how much you love them."

"Oh, Aunt Tillie—oh, Aunt Tillie!" Ceecee jumped up and ran over to her. "I'm sorry," she murmured as she started to cry. "I can't help it."

"It's all right, honey," Tillie said, gently patting her head. "We both understand."

IN A MOMENT Ceecee's sobs subsided. Bobby reached over, tenderly touched her shoulder and handed her his handkerchief.

"Well, like I said," Tillie went on, "I fixed things up with your parents, Ceecee— but the local police insisted on calling the Los Angeles police and having them look for you. And since your parents didn't know anything about me, they had a private investigator come out and chat with me. The investigator decided that I was O.K. He called the police off and—well, your parents have phoned every night to see how you are and I have given them a full report on you and your activities. I hope you don't mind."

Ceecee, who was still sitting on the floor near Tillie, looked up and smiled a little smile. "No, Tillie," she said softly, "I don't mind."

"Well, that explains my mysterious phone call and the mysterious caller I had at the Wardrobe Department at Screen Gems. He was the private investigator, of course. Which brings us all nicely up-to-date." Tillie leaned back, crossed her arms and smiled, obviously relieved.

"Not quite," Bobby said slowly.

"What do you mean?" Aunt Tillie asked.

"There are two other things I want to know about. One is, who were the people following us in that big, black car tonight? And two—" Bobby stopped and looked directly at Ceecee. "Why is Craig coming here?"

"Oh!" Aunt Tillie cried, jumping up as though she had been struck by lightning. "I forgot all about that!" She looked at her watch, but before she could say another word —the doorbell rang.

As Tillie started forward, Bobby said firmly, "Just a minute, Tillie. I'll see who it is."

Very deliberately, Bobby walked to the door, turned the knob and opened the door—and found himself staring at the face of a dark and handsome young man!

Who is the new "stranger" who has suddenly appeared in Ceecee and Bobby's life—and what does he want from them? To find out, be sure to get the August issue of 16 Magazine! It goes on sale June 23—reserve your copy now!!

HOW TO MEET & GET TO KNOW

BRANDON CRUZ

Not many of us are lucky enough to get to spend much time in sunny California, but if you are one of the lucky ones—and if you are a Brandon Cruz luvver—here's how you can meet and get to know ABC-TV's one and only Eddie!

Brandon lives with his family in the Westchester area of Los Angeles—not too far from the MGM Studio where The Courtship Of Eddie's Father is filmed. Brandon's home is on a tree lined block with a groovy tree house in the back-yard and a station wagon in the garage. If you see a house like that in Westchester—and see a long-haired eight-year-old playing football on the front lawn, take a good look cos it just might be Brandon!

Brandon will be spending most of his summer vacation at home with his mom, dad, two brothers and one sister—at least until The Courtship Of Eddie's Father resumes shooting in June. Brandon pays regular visits to the neighborhood hobby shops cos he's got a real passion for collecting slot cars. Brandon even makes his own candles in sand molds, which he sells to friends and he uses the profits to buy more slot cars for his collection!

Brandon spends some of his spare time with his TV father Bill Bixby at Bill's home in Beverly Hills. Brandon and Bill have a real life friendship that is just as close as the one you see on TV. They go to the beach together and visit the local Kiddyland as well.

When June comes around and the filming of Eddie's Father begins again Brandon will be getting up at 6:30 A.M. and rushing over to the MGM-TV Studio at 10202 Washington Blvd. in Culver City. Brandon puts in a six-hour work day during the summer months and a four-hour work day (and four hours of tutoring at the MGM school) during the school year! And remember—if you see Brandon anywhere just walk right up and say hello. He's a friendly, easy boy to get to know.

and DENNIS COLE

IF YOU WANT to meet and get to know Dennis Cole, you've got to be light on your feet—cos Dennis is almost always on the move. In fact, Dennis is one of the most active young stars in all TV land! How he manages to do all the things he does and still put in a full day's work at the TV studio is a real mystery!

Dennis lives in a groovy bachelor apartment (with a swimming pool) high in the hills of Hollywood, California. He leaves his home at 7 o'clock every morning for the short drive to the 20th Century-Fox Studio in Beverly Hills, where Bracken's World is filmed, and he doesn't return until long after the sun goes down. Even with his hectic six-day work week, Dennis somehow manages to find time to pay a daily visit to a local Hollywood gym for a workout. He also (still) takes lessons in almost every phase of show business!

If you want to meet Dennis Cole, here are just a few of his many hang-outs. He eats dinner in a local Mexican or Italian restaurant at least one night each week. (Dennis loves Mexican and Italian food—the spicier the better!) He studies dramatics with Robert Graham Paris at 1919 Argyl Street in Hollywood one night each week. He also takes guitar and singing lessons.

He spends his weekends at home with his young son, Joseph Dennis Cole (Dennis' marriage was dissolved amicably some time ago and "Joey" spends week days with his mother).

If you live too far away from California to pay Dennis a visit—how about Chicago?? Dennis will be appearing in the play A Nice Place To Visit at the Pheasant Run Playhouse during the summer vacation (at St. Charles, near Chicago). So if you live near Chicago—be sure to catch Dennis doing his "acting thing" in person!

Dennis is very kind and wonderfully friendly—so if you feel like being a "stage door Janie", do it! When Dennis comes out of the theatre, just step up and say hello. Tell him how much you enjoyed his performance—and, with a little luck, you'll get to talk to (and get to know) Dennis Cole right then and there!!

MISS 16 of North America ON TOUR!

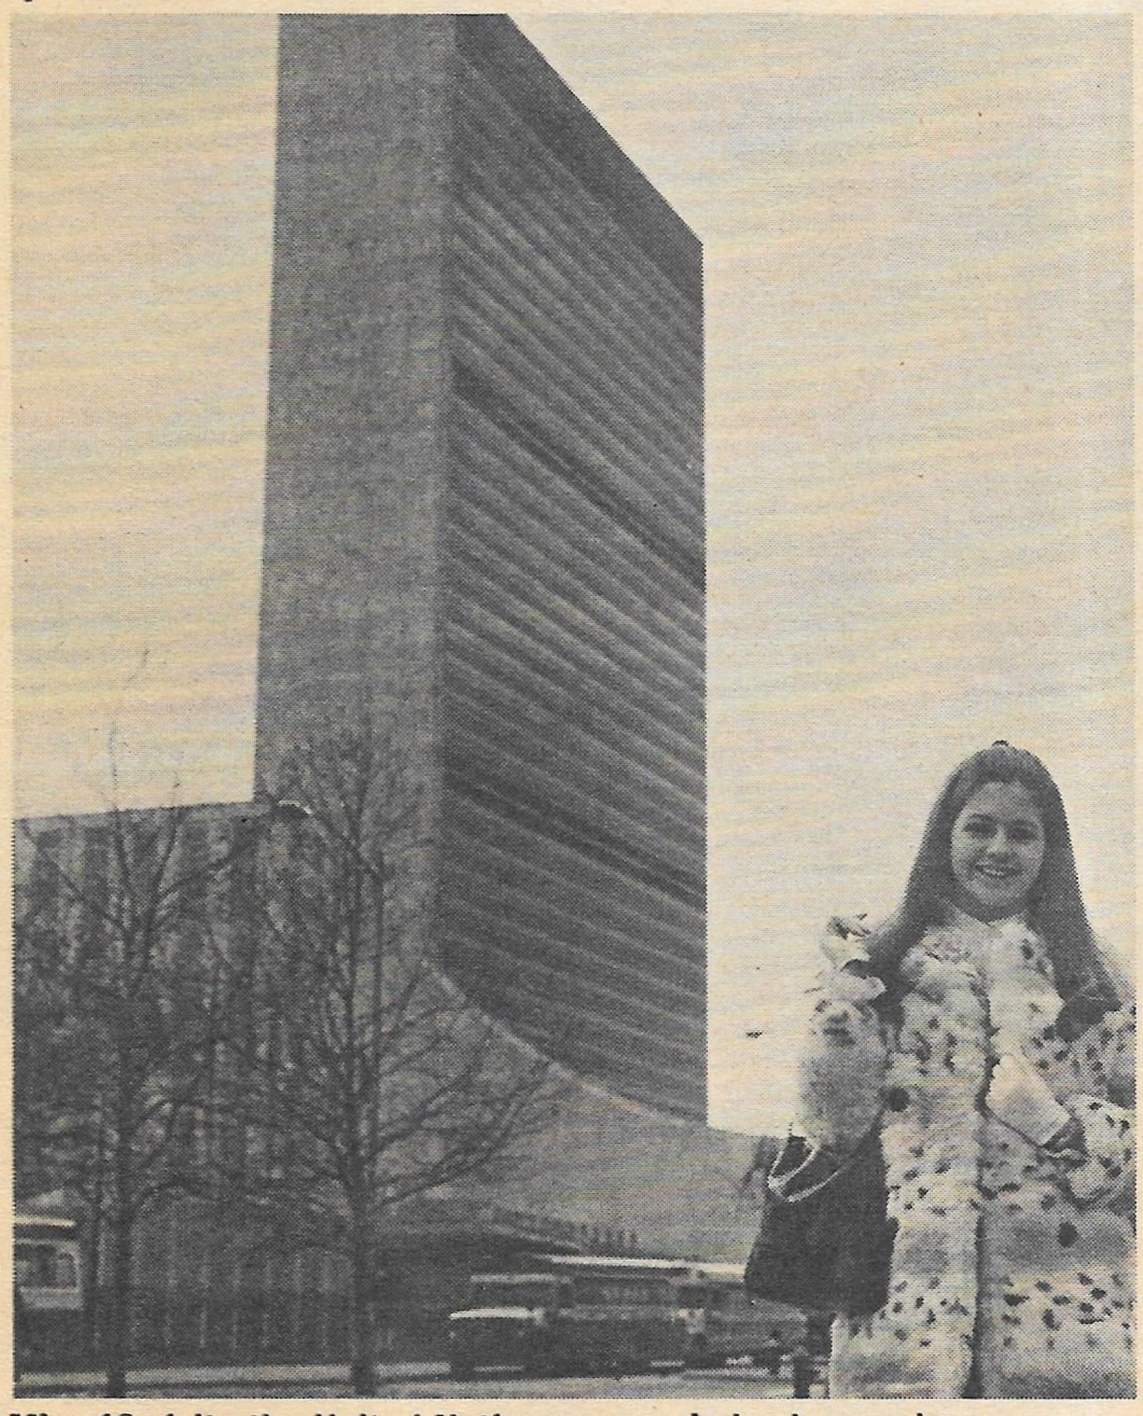

Pam with MC Don Webster and Jay of Jay and the Americans on the Up-Beat Show.

PAMELA WEISZHAAR, Miss 16 of North America for 1970, went on tour—and one of the most exciting trips on her itinerary was visiting the Up-Beat Show in Cleveland, Ohio, and watching group after group do their thing. Pam was taught new dance steps by Up-Beat's choreographer and visited with M. C. Don Webster and Jay and the Americans, both on and off the air. You saw her on TV having a wonderful afternoon on Up-Beat.

Flying to New York City, Pam was interviewed over the phone by her home town radio station KQWB of Fargo, North Dakota, while she was on the 65th floor of Rockefeller Center—and her parents in Moorhead, Minnesota, heard over the air all about her experiences in New York. She saw the famous Broadway musical Fiddler on the Roof, visited the offices of 16 Magazine, went to the United Nations, dined at El Morocco with her chaperone Mrs. June Sephton, and was greeted by show-biz stars and many people who knew her face from TV and assumed she was a movie star. Or was it that she was so beautiful every one thought she must be one?! Anyway, it was fun time for Miss 16 of North America!!

Miss 16 visits the United Nations—seen in background.

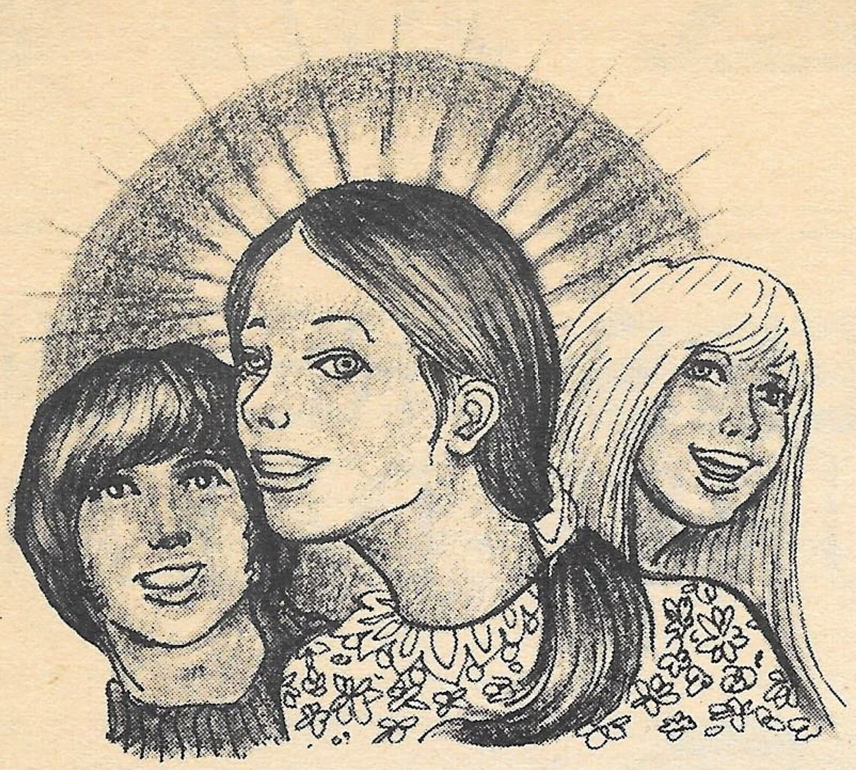

Pam poses in Rockefeller Plaza.

Pam at El Morocco. No wonder they thought she was a movie star!

In some cities, Miss 16 contests are going on right now. They are the preliminary contests to select local contestants from whom Miss 16 of North America for 1971 will be chosen.

Be sure to check with your local radio station and find out how you can enter your local Miss 16 contest. That's how Pamela Weiszhaar got started on her way to becoming Miss 16—and look at all the fun she's having!

You can be the next Miss 16! Just call your local radio station and find out how to be a contestant!

OSMOND BROTHERS PRESENT THIS MONTH'S SUPER-DREAM!

JUMPIN' JEHOSOPHAT!! The OSMOND BROTHERS really went all out to make super-sure that ANITA COOPER of Eaton, Ohio, had a Super-Dream to remember for a long, long time!

The Osmonds picked out a large photograph of themselves and personally autographed it to Anita—with love! They didn't stop there, either! Each member of the Osmond clan personally picked out a groovy gift for Anita to remember him by. Alan Osmond sent her a groovy mod-wristwatch, so she won't keep her dates waiting. Wayne Osmond sent her a beautiful black flamenco hat. Merril Osmond sent her a lovely leather change purse from Morroco. Jay Osmond sent her a pair of his very own drumsticks and a peace medallion on a chain. Donny Osmond sent a pocket-size transistor radio, so that she can have music wherever she goes!

As if all that weren't enough, the Osmond Brothers added a L.U.V. sweatshirt and a full-year's free subscription to 16 Magazine and to 16 SPEC as an extra-special bonus!

Gee, Anita—all you need now is a wheelbarrow to haul all those goodies home in! Chalk up another happy 16-er—thanks to the Osmond Brothers and Super-Dream! Dreamsville does it again!!

DREAMSVILLE

HIGH, TRUE-BELIEVERS!! It's your old pal "Dreamy"—the far-out feline who keeps a watchful eye on the golden gates to Dreamsville! Wait'll you see the groovy goodies that are waitin' for three more lucky 16-ers! You'll purr like a pussycat and smile-a-mile!!

Follow me to the text below—and see if your name is listed there. If it is—you'll be getting all of your prizes by mail in the near future. If it's not — just keep pitchin' and don't give up hope. Sooner or later, everybody who believes that dreams can come true will find themselves in Dreamsville! I kid you not!

If you'd like to know how to apply for a Dreamsville trip—just read the E-Z instructions below.

Just write a short letter (on one side of the sheet only!) telling what you would dearly love to have. Could be a personal phone call—or a personal letter—from your favorite star. Could be a personal keepsake from your dream guy. Could be a pin-up portrait personally autographed by your grooviest group. Could be a whole set of recordings from the top of the charts. Could be any number of delicious things. It's your request—so you name it. Jot it down on a sheet of paper and mail it to the address below. All it costs is just one 6¢ stamp—nothing else! Your Dreamsville gift is absolutely free!

After you've mailed your letter, don't fail to get every issue of 16 Magazine and watch the Dreamsville answers page—because that's where you'll see the glorious news that everything you wished for, dreamed of, longed for has come true!

KATHY YORK of Washington, D.C., has a queen-size crush on BROWNING BRYANT and wrote a letter to Dreamsville to let us know about it! Browning took some time out of his busy schedule to make sure that Kathy had a delightful trip to Dreamsville. Browning personally autographed a large picture of himself, autographed a copy of his Dot LP Patches and picked out a surprise gift that is sure to send Kathy into an orbit of joy! Browning also telephoned Kathy person-to-person and filled her in on all of his latest activities! Dreamsville will go to any lengths to make your dreams come true!!

PAT RANKIN of Silver Spring, Md., wrote a letter to Dreamsville saying that MIKE STROKA of Dark Shadows sends thrilling shivers up her spine! Pat asked for "anything at all" to remember Mike by! Mike went all out to answer Pat's Dreamsville request by personally autographing one of his very own Dark Shadows scripts and a large photograph of himself. Mike also sent along a combination bracelet and Oriental ring—and a fantastic "love potion" ring (the very same rings and bracelet he's wearing in the picture)! Dreamsville never closes its golden gates to true-believers!

LAURIEJEAN MURPHY of Great Barrington, Mass., is just daffy over DARBY HINTON of NBC-TV's Daniel Boone — and wrote to Dreamsville for a souvenir to remember him by! Darlin' Darby rushed to her rescue by personally autographing a large picture of himself. He didn't stop there, either! Darby selected a stack of some of his favorite LP records (including many of the recording stars you've seen in 16) and picked out a combination radio-record player to spin them on! Darby also sent Lauriejean a full-year's free subscription to 16 Magazine and 16 SPEC as a bonus prize! Dreamsville triumphs!!

how to MEET & get to KNOW ME

by David Henesy

IF YOU'RE a regular Dark Shadows fan you probably know where most of the DS gang hang out. If you don't, here's a quick rundown. When we're taping the show, we arrive at the Dark Shadows studio, at 433 West 53rd Street in Manhattan (New York City), about 7 o'clock in the morning—and we're usually locked in there until 7 at night! The main office of Dark Shadows is called Dan Curtis Productions, and it is at 405 Park Avenue in Manhattan. And, of course, ABC-TV's main offices are at 1330 Sixth Avenue. A new place most of us Dark Shadows regulars have been hanging out at is the small city of Tarrytown, New York, which is located beside the Hudson River about 40 miles above New York City.

Tarrytown is where the original Dark Shadows "Old House" was discovered by Dan Curtis. What Jonathan Frid, Joan Bennett, Kathryn Leigh Scott, Louis Edmonds, John Karlen, Roger Davis, Don Briscoe, myself and the rest of the DS gang have been doing at Tarrytown is making the brand new Dark Shadows color movie just for you! And, wow—what a movie! All I can say is so much goes on in it that—well, you'll just have to see it to believe it! But more about that in the next issue of 16!

MY NEIGHBORHOOD

I live on West End Avenue in the low 80's in Manhattan. David Selby and Christopher Pennock are both neighbors of mine, so if you ever find yourself in that neighborhood, be sure to keep your eyes open if you'd like to meet and get to know a couple of DS regulars!

I'm not much for hanging out in candy stores or places like that. In fact, my only neighborhood hang-out is the camera store at 83rd Street and Broadway. I'm always in there—whether I have money or I'm broke! I just dig looking at and talking about anything that has to do with still or moving cameras.

You're also very likely to find me window-shopping up and down Broadway in the 80s. Actually, what I'm really doing is "people watching". That's my second favorite pastime. For some reason, quietly observing the actions and reactions of people when they don't know you're watching them intrigues me greatly.

YOUR HOME TOWN

Aside from the places I've mentioned, guess where else you can meet me—or any of the other Dark Shadows regulars? In your home town! As soon as the Dark Shadows movie goes into release in July, the DS gang plans to split up and travel all over America—visiting the towns where the movie is being shown. So be sure to read future issues of 16 and 16 SPEC to find out when we're coming to your home town!

Getting to know me is the easiest thing in the world! I love straightforward, friendly, good-natured girls. In fact, the only way not to get to know me is to hide behind a sign, poster or tree, giggle and point at me and whisper. That really drives me up the wall! But if you see me passing by and you would honestly like to talk for awhile—just say hello and introduce yourself! We'll "wing it" from there!

JACKSON 5

telly time

The fantastic Jackson 5, who made such a big hit on CBS-TV's The Ed Sullivan Show, are no longer strangers to the record buyers in England. Their recent Motown Records single ABC is number one on the British hit parade! The Jackson 5 are strangers to English TV watchers, though—and it's all because of their 10-year-old lead singer Michael Jackson. In England, they have a rule restricting TV appearances after 8 P.M. for any performer under the age of 12! Since all the good English music and variety shows are on the tube after 8 P.M.— the Jackson 5 can't do their musical "thing" in England except on records!

If you've ever wondered what happens to your favorite TV stars when their TV series are cancelled—wonder no more! You'll find them all as guest stars on other TV shows! Here are just a few. Walter (Star Trek) Koenig and Rudi (Garrison's Gorillas) Solari were guest stars on a recent episode of CBS-TV's Medical Center. Troy (Surfside 6) Donahue is currently hard at work as a regular on CBS-TV's daytime soap opera The Secret Storm. Zooey (The New People) Hall was seen on a recent episode of Here Come The Brides. Robert (The Survivors) Lipton just finished a guest role on NBC-TV's The Name Of The Game. Chris (Garrison's Gorillas) Cary can be see in Paris 7000. Bob (Cowboy In Africa) Random was on a recent Then Came Bronson. . . . You'll also find some of your favorite TV stars turning up in TV guest roles even though they still have a TV series of their own! Here are just a few: Bridget (Here Come The Brides) Hanley popped up on the TV game show Stump The Stars. Leonard (Mission: Impossible) Nimoy and Lloyd (Room 222) Haynes are soon to be seen in a new ABC movie for TV called Assault On The Wayne. Chad (Medical Center) Everett will soon be seen in a CBS-TV movie called Cause For Alarm. Michael (Then Came Bronson) Parks can be seen singing up a storm on The Johnny Cash Show . . . Then there are the TV stars who are doing other things—like James (Hawaii Five-0) MacArthur, in a new Commonwealth United movie called The Angry Breed; and Goldie (Laugh In) Hawn, in Columbia's hit movie Cactus Flower. It just goes to show you—if you want to know what your fav TV star is doing, keep your eyes on the TV and entertainment listings of your local papers. You'll find them all there!

Hope you didn't miss the beautiful production of David Copperfield on NBC-TV at the end of March. It was a heart-warming dramatization of the Charles Dickens classic—and it was jam-packed with stars! The role of David Copperfield as a boy was played by nine-year-old Alistair MacKenzie and Copperfield as a young man was played by Robin Phillips. These two English actors made a hit with the critics and viewers alike—and they are sure to be stars of the future! (If you'd like to write to either Alistair MacKenzie or Robin Phillips, just drop a line to them in care of 20th Century-Fox TV, Box 900, Beverly Hills, Calif.) . . . Didja see Tommy Boyce and Bobby Hart in guest roles on ABC-TV's The Flying Nun recently? Didja see them in guest roles on ABC's Bewitched? Tommy and Bobby can act as well as they can sing! . . . David Cassidy, who will soon be seen in his very own TV series The Partridge Family on ABC, has quite a few guest-star roles under his belt. David has been seen on Adam 12, Bonanza, Marcus Welby, M.D., Ironside, The F.B.I. and Medical Center. If you missed seeing him in any of them don't despair! They'll all be re-run this summer (so keep scanning your TV listings)! . . . Tiffany (The New People) Bolling has just released her first record and it's a knock-out! Rush right down to your local record store and get a copy of her single Let It Be or her LP Thank God The War Is Over on Canyon Records. Tiffany sings up a storm! . . . Attention all Bobby Lipton and Mike Vincent luvvers! You'll be able to see them both this summer on ABC-TV's The Survivors (one of the series which was cancelled in February), cos it's being re-shown—all 16 episodes— on Thursdays from 10 to 11 P.M.

HOW TO MEET & GET TO KNOW THE GRASS ROOTS!

DO THE GRASS ROOTS turn you on? Do you often dream of meeting them—and do you wish you could be face-to-face with one (or all) of them, gaze into his (or their) eyes and really get to know them well? If you answered "yes" to the above questions—bet you thought they were just dreams that couldn't possibly ever come true! Well, you're wrong! Meeting Warren, Bob, Rickey and Dennis is not impossible! All it takes is knowing what to do and where to be—at the right time!

The Grass Roots really do want to meet you too! Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis sincerely think of each fan as a very special person—so be sure to live up to the beautiful image they have of you! Aside from everything else, the one most important thing to remember is don't create a scene by screaming and giggling in any way that will embarrass them—or yourself! Always act in a ladylike manner, remain calm—and you'll be surprised and delighted with the wonderful results you'll get! Now, here's how you can meet the Grass Roots!!

CALIFORNIA DREAMIN'

If you live in California, are planning to visit there, or just happen to be passing through—you have a great chance of meeting the Grass Roots, since all four of the guys live there! Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis can very often be found visiting the offices of Dunhill Records at 8255 Beverly Boulevard in Beverly Hills, and the Roots do all of their recording at Western Recorders located at Sunset and Gower.

Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis are very close friends, so they spend a great deal of time together even when they aren't working. The guys very often go out for lunch and dinner, and some of their favorite restaurants include—a great place called Cafe Four Oaks (2181 Beverly Glen in Los Angeles); a health food place (at Fairfax and Third) called Help; El Torero's for Mexican food; and the Old World (8782 West Sunset Boulevard), particularly for brunch. Get out your little datebook and make special note of this: if the Grass Roots happen to be in town on an evening when one of them is celebrating his birthday—you can usually find the guys all together dining at Chuck's Steak House (8458 West Third in Beverly Hills).

Warren Entner's hobby is photography, so when he's not roaming around taking pictures—you can sometimes find him at Schaeffer Photo and Camera Supply (1553 Cahuenga). However, if it's a super-sunny day—you'll no doubt find Warren on Malibu Beach. Whenever he has a day off, your favorite fisherman, Rob Grill, heads for Lake Chuma (near Santa Barbara) to get some relaxation and participate in his fav pastime. During the daytime, you may find Rickey Coonce driving along the freeway in his mini-cooper or wandering through Disneyland. Another place to check out is Al Axelrod's (on Robertson Boulevard in Los Angeles), cos that's where Rickey and Warren go to have their cars worked on and they claim they spend a lot of time there!

If you're ever near Mulholland Drive and you see a good-looking guy drive by in a Korvette—take a second look! It may very well be Dennis Provisor! But don't worry if Dennis zooms by so fast you can't catch him. Remember this: you can almost always find Dennis at night in the Brass Ring (or any other music-type club in the Valley). Here's another clue: when you go to a club looking for Dennis, don't look at the audience—you'll spot him on stage, jamming with the band! And if the drummer looks familiar you're not seeing things—it probably is Rickey!

The clubs in California the Grass Roots most often frequent are The Whisky-A-Go-Go (8901 West Sunset Boulevard), The Troubadour (9081 Santa Monica Boulevard) and The Aware Inn (8828 Sunset Boulevard). So if there's a good group or a groovy artist appearing at any of these places—chances are Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis will be watching the show!

EAST COAST HANG-OUTS

When the Grass Roots are in New York City, they usually stay at the Plaza Hotel (Fifth Avenue and 59th Street). During the day, the guys like to walk through Central Park or go shopping at their favorite place for "funky" clothes—The Gypsy Camp (Second Avenue between Ninth and Tenth Streets). For lunch and dinner, you'll probably see them at Reuben's (58th Street between Fifth and Madison Avenues), Casey's (142 West Tenth Street), or Max's Kansas City (213 Park Avenue South). The club Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis most often visit in New York City is Ungano's (210 West 70th Street).

The Grass Roots are constantly traveling throughout the United States and Canada, making personal appearances. So what are you waiting for? Do you realize what a wonderful opportunity you have to meet them?! All you have to do is go see their "in person" concert! Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis really love meeting their fans and make every effort to talk to as many as possible. Even if you don't get to meet them (although thousands of fans have), you will at least be able to see their super-exciting show. And that's a special treat all by itself!

When on tour, the Grass Roots usually stay at a Holiday Inn or some other hotel—right in the heart of town. Many times the four of them make the rounds of the antique shops and the guys usually go to an Italian or a Mexican restaurant for dinner. After the concert, the Roots very often stop in the hotel lounge and jam with the house band. If there's a park nearby they very often play football—but sometimes they enjoy walking around and seeing the city.

While they're in your town, the Grass Roots are bound to make local TV appearances and visit your local radio station. Find out where these places are and check to see when the Grass Roots are scheduled to appear. When you have all the information (and tickets, if necessary)—go there and greet the guys when they arrive. With all the traveling this group does, many lucky Grass Root-ers have met the guys at an airport. The thing to remember is they usually arrive in a city the same day as their concert and leave the following morning.

You see—you really can meet the Grass Roots! And they are such groovy, down-to-earth, friendly guys that as long as you are polite and sincere—they'll truly enjoy talking to you! And that's the way you'll really get to know and become friends with Warren, Rob, Rickey and Dennis! Lucky you!!

DENNIS COLE QUITS!! PAUL, JOHN & YOKO QUIT!! PEGGY, CLARENCE & TIGE QUIT!!

Though the Beatles "officially" deny it, Paul McCartney has "indirectly" announced—through his attorney and brother-in-law John Eastman—that his future music and business projects will keep him so tied up that it is ". . . highly unlikely that the Beatles will ever make a record again together". It was said that private ventures will keep Paul from directly working with the remainder of the Beatle quartet indefinitely! Meanwhile, Paul has just released his fabulous LP McCartney—on which Paul (who wrote all 14 songs) plays all instruments and sings all vocals—and which Paul recorded in his small studio at his home in St. Johns Wood. Paul and his wife Linda even created the cover design for the LP!!

SHOW-STOPPERS: The fabulous OSMOND BROTHERS in their record-breaking appearance in Tokyo, Japan . . . ELVIS PRESLEY in his record-breaking appearance at Houston's Astrodome. Elvis, by the by, has just gotten a million-dollar world's first closed circuit, one-man international television guarantee from Filmways, Inc. and Concerts Associates for the spec. You'll probably get to see it in the biggest local theatre or arena in or near your home town—so stay tuned to 16 for further details!

MORE SHOW-STOPPERS: The incredible JACKSON 5 singing I Want You Back on The Ed Sullivan Show . . . BOYCE & HART (pictured here with friends and admirer MICKY DOLENZ) after their incredible Vegas Lounge act . . . And PETER TORK with MICKY DOLENZ and CoCo (Micky's sister) in a guest appearance at the famous Troubador Club in Los Angeles. Ringside clappers were DAVY JONES and the YELLOW PAYGES, to name a few.

BEAUTIFUL COMBINATIONS: ROGER DAVIS and RICHARD VAN FLEET co-starring in ABC-TV's Movie Of The Week The Young Country . . . DAVID SELBY (as "Cisco") and LEE KISSMAN (who plays "Willie The Space Freak") in the Off-Broadway play The Unseen Hand . . . The new RIGHTEOUS BROTHERS—JIMMY WALKER and BOBBY HATFIELD. Their verve LP Rebirth is a don't miss . . . JAMME, England's latest contribution to Dunhill Records. Their first LP—Jamme—is produced by PAPA JOHN PHILLIPS . . . JOHN and ANN RYDER, English singing stars now available on Decca Records. Their first Decca LP is I Still Believe In Tomorrow.

Luscious LEN WHITING may soon be available to you as a recording artist. Negotiations are already going on between him and the producers of JACK WILD's first single. (Jack's first single is Some Beautiful on Capitol Records) . . . MARK LESTER (who also may be recording soon) is rehearsing for an English TV show about a schoolboy's musical adventures—with a score based on nothing but BEATLE and BEE GEES tunes! Let's hope it gets to America . . . JIMI HENDRIX, STEVEN STILLS, JOHN SEBASTIAN and BUDDY MILES are just a few of the "anonymous" musicians you'll hear backing up Tim Leary on Tim's first Douglas Records LP, You Can Be Anything This Time Around . . . Welcome to JOHN CARTER CASH, brand new baby son of JOHNNY CASH and his wife JUNE.

After JOHN LENNON and YOKO ONO went and "Samson'd" their head bones, RINGO and PAUL followed suit . . . Looks like GEORGE is the only long-haired BEATLE left. George and PATTI are giving up their lovely little Sussex bungalow and are moving into a gigantic 170-room castle at Henley-on-Thames. The turreted Gothic mansion, which costs $336,000, is situated in a 35-acre estate and used to be a convent . . . PAULIE-poo and his lovely LINDA recently flashed through New York City on a business-pleasure jaunt, surprising many of Linda's old buddies with visits and phone calls . . . Meanwhile, back at the bed-in, JOHN and YOKO have officially disclaimed any connection with the Toronto Rock Peace Festival. Hower, the festival is going ahead and its promoters, JOHN BROWER and KARMA PRODUCTIONS, feel that their July peace-pop-rock thing is going to be a great "commercial" success. Well, that's just what John and Yoko objected to—"commercializing" peace . . . Sweet lovable RINGO will have his first single record out on Apple Records soon! It's called It Don't Come Easy and he wrote it himself. GEORGE HARRISON produced it and plays guitar on it.

PEGGY LIPTON, CLARENCE WILLIAMS III and TIGE ANDREWS were last-minute hold-outs — threatening not to come back to Mod Squad unless their salaries were raised. MIKE COLE, who had already settled his hassle with the Spelling-Thomas Production Company, was a sympathetic hold-out too . . . Wonder where BOBBY SHERMAN went on his vacation early this past spring?? And wonder who went along with him?? . . . Jumpin' JAY NORTH may jump right onto your TV screens this coming season as a surprise new regular on a long-running show. More about that later. Meanwhile, back in the schoolroom, Jay has just enrolled at Pierce Junior College in Los Angeles, where he will major in Theatre Arts.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH:

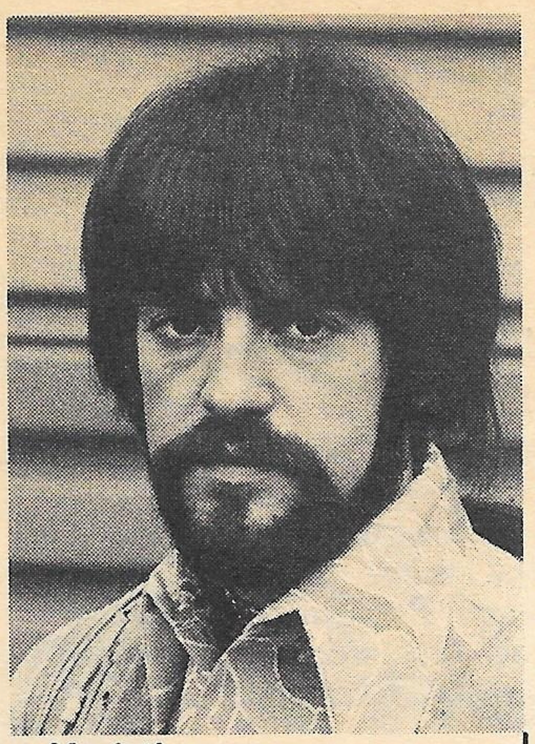

"Don't hate the black . . .
Don't hate the white . . .
If you get bit,
Just hate the bite.
Make sure your heart is beatin' right!
Are you ready?"

Sly & The Family Stone

FLASH! DENNIS COLE has asked for and received permission from NBC-TV to leave the cast of Bracken's World. No info at press time on his future plans. Stay tuned to 16!

TOP PICK

Woodstock on Atlantic-Cotillion Records. This fabulous triple "album of the year" is based on the soundtrack of Warner Bros.' "movie of the year"—Woodstock. Woodstock includes lengthy, live performances by Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Country Joe & The Fish, Richie Havens, Santana, Ten Years After, Joan Baez, Joe Cocker, Sha Na Na, Sly & The Family Stone, the fantastic Who, Jimi Hendrix and Arlo Guthrie—to name a few.

SUPER ALBUMS

Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young's Deja Vu on Atlantic; John B. Sebastian on Reprise; the Mama's & the Papa's A Gathering Of Flowers (all of their greatest hits plus a beautiful, personal story-photo scrapbook of the history of the Mamas & the Papas) on Dunhill; the Beach Boys' Good Vibrations (a collection of their very greatest hits from Sloop John B through Good Vibrations).

BEST LPs

The Raiders' College on Columbia; the Hardy Boys' Wheels on RCA; Jaggerz' We Went To Different Schools Together (The Rapper and I Call My Baby Candy are on this) on Kama Sutra; the New York Electric String Ensemble's Tapestry on Columbia; and the Deidre Wilson Tabac on RCA.

RECOMMENDED LPs

The Hollies' He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother on Epic; the Temptations' Psychedelic Shack on Gordy; Zager & Evans on RCA; Spooky Tooth/Pierre Henry's Ceremony on A&M; and especially recommended this month is a truly beautiful, exciting LP by a "new" group called Free. Be sure to pick up on the LP Free on A&M.

OUTSTANDING LPs

James Taylor's Sweet Baby James on Warner Bros.; Robin Gibb's Robin's Reign on Atco; Redbone on Epic; the Tokens' Both Sides Now on Buddah; Ten Years After's Cricklewood Green on London; and Taos' lovely first LP—simply called Taos—on Mercury.

BRIDGET'S Mail Bag

If you have a question about any of the Brides gang—write to Bridget Hanley—and look for her answer right here in 16 Magazine!

Dear Bridget,

You and Bobby Sherman are both such groovy people, and you seem to get along so well—on screen and off. Would you please tell me when and where you first met Bobby?

Sharon Cooper
Greenwood, Missouri

• Dear Sharon,

Thank you for saying such sweet things. The very first time I met Bobby was in November of 1967—just before I tested for the TV pilot of Here Come The Brides. I was walking with a Screen Gems executive and right outside the studio we both noticed a very handsome, happy-go-lucky young man who was sort of dancing down the street. As you've no doubt guessed — that good-looking guy turned out to be Bobby, and I liked him immediately! Bobby had just learned that he had won the role of "Jeremy" and he wished me luck with my test for the part of "Candy". I'll never forget that special day, cos it wasn't just the beginning of Brides*—it was also the start of a beautiful friendship between Bobby and me!*

Dear Miss Hanley,

My girl friend and I seem to have a bit of a dispute over the correct way to pronounce your last name. Please set us straight on this!

Betty Cunningham
Pico Rivera, California

• Dear Betty,

I'd be happy to settle your "dispute"! I believe you're referring to my stage name, which is pronounced Han-ly. However my married name is pronounced Swackhammer. By the way, next time you write to me, please call me Bridget. After all—we're friends!

Dear Bridget,

I watch Here Come The Brides every week and needless to say—I love the show! I'm very confused about one thing, though. I know that you film Brides at the Screen Gems ranch, but sometimes there are so many different scenes outdoors — and the scenery always looks so real! Tell me—how do they do it?

Melanie Rogers
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

• Dear Melanie,

What great eyesight you have! You're right—most of the filming of Brides is done at the Screen Gems ranch and a lot of the scenes are shot outdoors on the section of the ranch we call "Seattle Street". However, sometimes we do go on location, and that's why the scenery looks so very real—cos it is! The following is a list of the places in California where we usually go when we film shows or scenes on location: Angeles National Forest (two hours north of Los Angeles); Franklin Canyon (15 minutes from the ranch); and Bronson Canyon (in Griffith Park in Los Angeles).

Dear Bridget,

I saw a picture of Bobby Sherman with a guitar and I would like to know if Bobby really knows how to play it.

Wanda Pearson
Hershey, Pa.

• Dear Wanda,

Not only can super-talented Mr. Sherman play the guitar—but he also can play nine other instruments as well! Altogether, Bobby is an accomplished musician on guitar, trumpet, drums, piano, organ, French horn, harmonica, autoharp, trombone and a Greek instrument known as a bouzoukee.

Dear Bridget,

I really love the dresses you and the other brides wear on the show. I was wondering if you could tell me what store or any other place that I could send away for one?

Janet McLaughlin
Bloomington, Ind.

• Dear Janet,

I checked with our Wardrobe Department and it seems that the dresses are designed and made at the studio—just for our show. To my knowledge, they are not for sale anywhere. I was also surprised to learn that each dress costs anywhere from $250 to $500. I'm sorry I couldn't help you out, but I hope you'll be able to find a dress similar in style and a lot less expensive in one of your neighborhood stores. If I hear any more news on this—I'll be sure to let you and all the other 16-ers know!

SAD NEWS DEPT.

Dear Bridget,

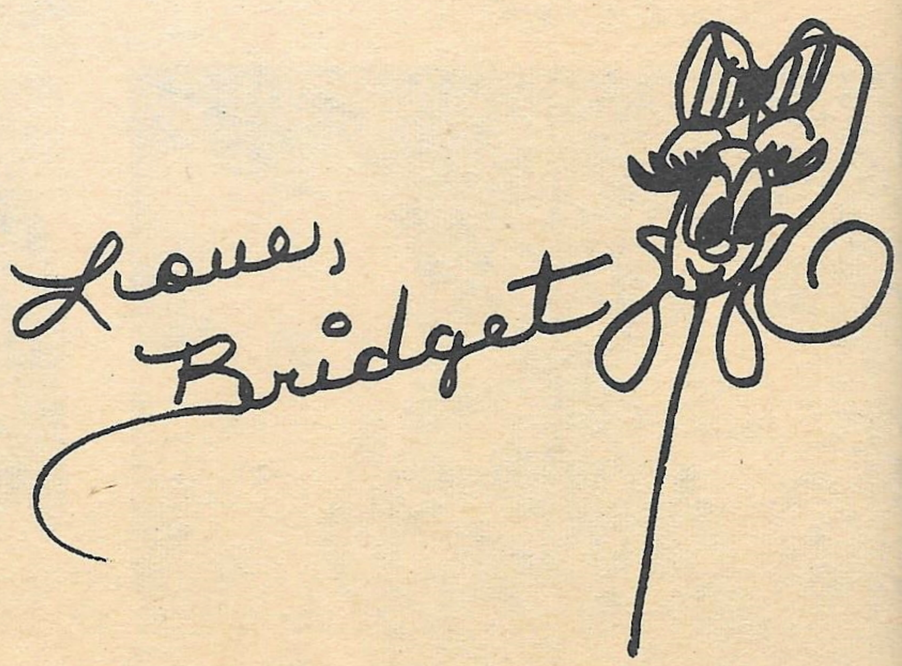

My friends and I are unhappy and furious cos Here Come The Brides was taken off the air here in Richmond—and it was our favorite show! As if that isn't bad enough—we also read in the newspaper that Brides will be cancelled after the summer re-runs and won't be seen anywhere anymore! Whatever will we do without the beautiful Brides gang? Please tell us this isn't true!

Denise Conrad
Richmond, Va.

• Dear Denise,

I sincerely wish I could tell you (and the thousands of other 16-ers who wrote to me) that the announcement isn't true, but at press time—it looks as though Here Come The Brides will be cancelled come September. My first reaction to this news was the same as yours! I felt so very sad —and I must admit I even cried! I truly love the show, and love working with such a wonderful cast and crew. Although I'll miss it very much, I have so many things to be thankful for. The Brides gang shared two great years together, and most important of all—we feel extra lucky to have so many wonderful friends out there in TV-land. Don't worry about not seeing us, cos we'll all be in 16 Magazine every issue with up - to - the - minute news on us—Bobby Sherman, David Soul, Robert Brown, Susan Tolsky, the rest of the gang—and me. And in a future issue of 16, I promise to fill you in on all of our future plans! So if you have any specific questions, be sure to write to me at the following address:

TWO DAYS WITH DAVY & MICKY

BY JEFF NEAL

PART TWO

Davy

Sammy & Micky

AS I TOLD YOU last month (remember—just as we ran out of space?), Davy had to scoot off to a Screen Gems meeting and sent his wife Linda and baby Talia to Zilch with my mom, dad and me.

"Go on down to Zilch—and Linda, pick out some clothes, something for yourself and something for me too! O.K.? I'll meet all of you there later," Davy called, dashing away.

In a flash, he was out the door and we were on the way downstairs for our limo trip to Zilch. When the elevator opened in the lobby of the St. Regis, who do you think we saw standing in front of us? Micky Dolenz and his adorable wife Sammy!

"Hi-ho, Jeffrey!" Mickey called and—guess what? Before we knew it, we were all back in the elevator and headed up to Micky and Sammy's suite!

"You've just got to stop and say hello for a minute or two," Micky insisted, escorting us inside.

And after we all ordered Cokes, we sat around and talked.

"I'm doing a play this spring!" Micky exclaimed, and he was more excited than I've ever seen him. "It's called Remains To Be Seen and in it I play an unemployed drummer. It's my first theatre acting role and I'm really excited!"

"Tell us where it's going to be, Micky," I said. Maybe we can go there and see you!"

"Oh," Micky said, coming down to earth, "I don't know about that—because it's in St. Charles, Illinois. That's about 30 miles from Chicago. Anyway, it's at the Pheasant Run Playhouse in St. Charles, starting June 2 for two weeks—and I hope everybody who can will make it out there to see me!"

I noticed the cute outfit Sammy was wearing and asked her where she got it.

She giggled and replied, "Why, at my very own shop, Jeff." And then she went on to tell me that her Hollywood specialty shop One Of A Kind is very much in business at 12069 Ventura Place, Studio City, California, these days. If you're interested in what's going on there, why don't you write a personal letter to Mrs. Sammy Dolenz. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope—and you'll get a reply from Sammy before you know it!

ON TO ZILCH!

After a pleasant interlude with Micky and Sammy, we hopped into the limo and headed for Zilch at 217 Thompson Street. Linda let out a big, happy gasp when she walked into the store. After looking at all of the posters, signs and pictures the Monkees' fans had been kind enough to send to the store, she scurried around from one place to another selecting goodies for herself and Davy. By the time Linda got everything together, she had picked out a fringed vest, a Moroccan leather pocketbook, a scarf and some slacks for herself—and she had then selected an identical fringed vest and matching slacks in Davy's size for him!

Suddenly the door burst open and in walked Davy—all smiles as usual.

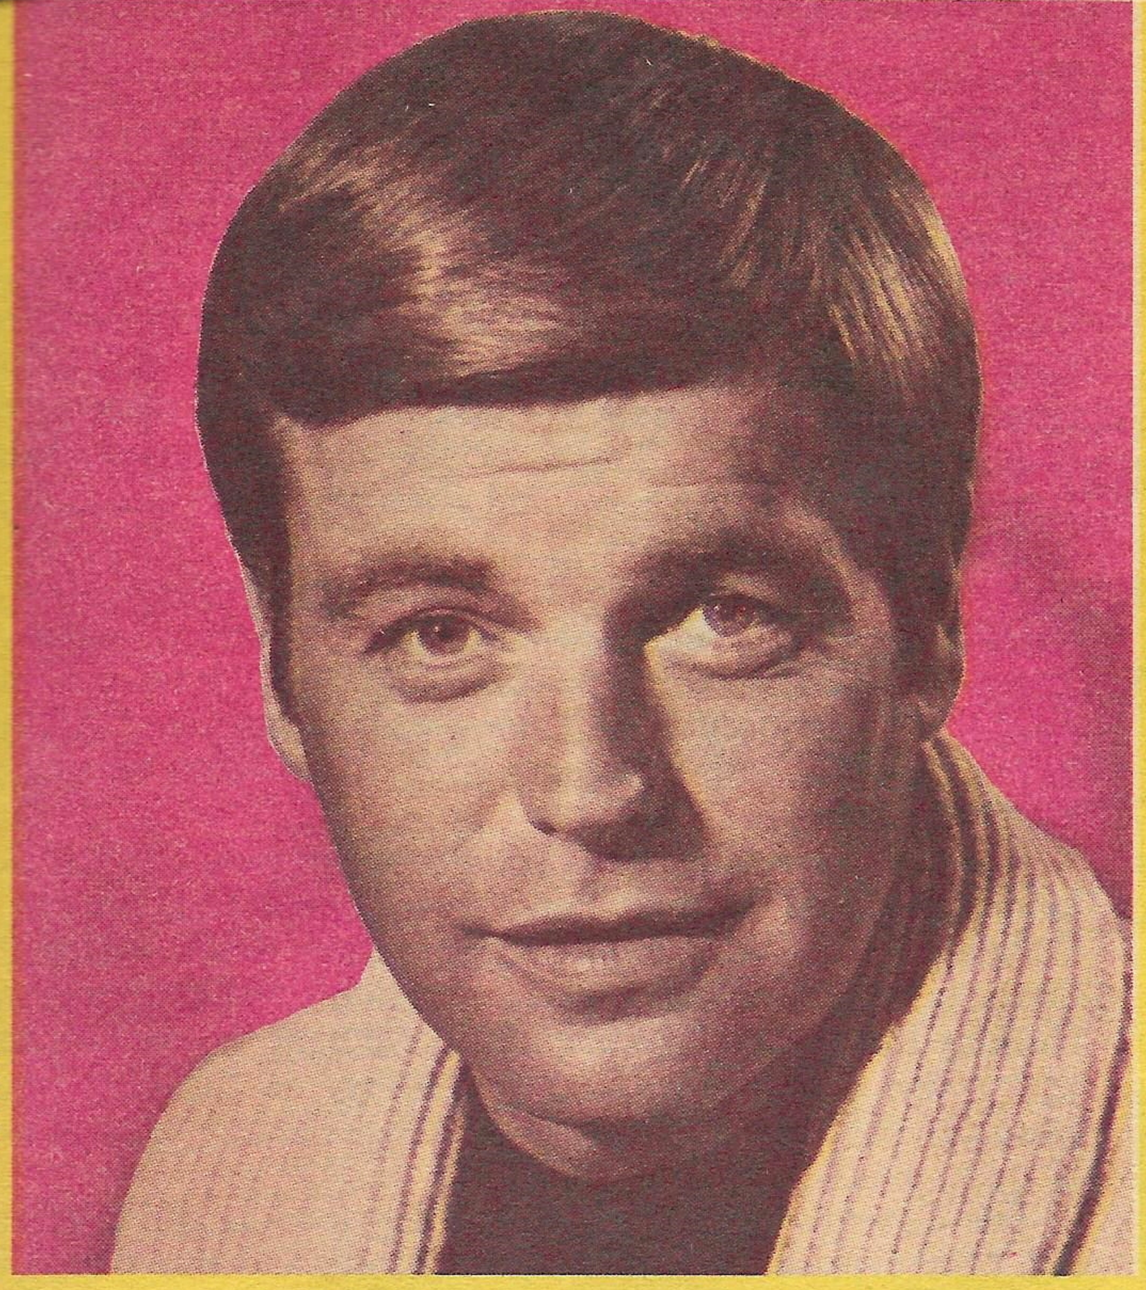

"Wow—the place looks great!" Davy exclaimed, and then he started his shopping spree!

By the time we got all of the bundles together, we were ready for dinner—so off we went to our favorite Greenwich Village restaurant. It's a super Italian restaurant called Rocco's, so if you're ever in the neighborhood, do drop in for the best spaghetti; veal parmigiana—or whatever your favorite Italian dish is!

Before we parted, we made a date with Davy to take him to the airport the following night—after both he and Linda stopped by our house for Davy's favorite home-cooked meal. When Davy and Linda arrived at our apartment the next night, he found a banquet of chicken soup, lamb chops, French fries and Brussels sprouts—all cooked by my mom—waiting for him, Linda and Talia!

Later, we listened to some of Davy's favorite records, all of which were fast rock "screamers." Then Davy listened to a few demos of some original material I had written and sung. I was knocked out when he asked if he could take the demos back to Los Angeles with him!

Before I knew it, it was time to hurry off to J.F.K. International Airport—and we made it just in time. The last thing Davy said as he turned to board the plane was, "It was great seeing you all again—and I'll be back very soon!" Linda, Davy and the baby waved—and they were gone again.

HOW YOU CAN MEET & GET TO KNOW THE COWSILLS!

Dear 16,

My girl friends and I recently saw the Cowsills in person. We met them backstage, and boy!—was it exciting! My friend Norma gave John a birthday cake and I gave Bob a Valentine card I made. Ramona, my other girl friend, took this groovy picture of them. Please print it in 16. The Cowsills are the greatest!!!

Love and Peace,

Lois Hernandez
Dallas, Texas

IF YOU'RE a real Cowsill-lover (and who isn't?), your heart probably did flip-flops as you read Lois' sweet letter and you probably thought, "Gee, I wish it were me and my friends who were lucky enough to meet the Cowsills!" There's no doubt about it—Lois and her friends certainly were lucky girls, cos they sure did get to meet and spend time with those ever-lovin' Cowsills—but guess what?! Lots of other fans all over America have also met Susan, John, Barry, Paul, Bob, Barbara and Bud, and even better than that—you can too!!

As you know, the Cowsills do a lot of travelling. They're almost always on the road—making "in-person" appearances from coast to coast. And that's just how you can meet them—without even leaving your home town! All you have to know is where they are going to be—and when they are going to be there!

Whenever possible, the Cowsills arrive in a city the day before the date of their concert appearance. If there's a Holiday Inn in your town—chances are that's where the Cowsills will be staying. However, don't fret if there's no Holiday Inn—just check the best hotel near the concert hall where the Cowsills will be appearing, or the best hotel closest to the airport. The Cowsill gang is bound to be at one of these places!

The Cowsills usually spend the day touring the town, so don't be surprised if you bump into John and Barry at your neighborhood hang-out—or run into Bob and Paul at the shopping center! You may even be lucky enough to meet the whole family—cos they usually wander around town together. And they'll probably be walking — so you'll be sure not to miss seeing them!

Since they don't work in the evening—cos it's the day before their show—you can usually find the Cowsill clan at your local bowling alley (they always try to find one in town); at your local movie house (they like to see all the popular flicks); or at the most famous music-type club in town—especially if there's a good group or artist appearing there!

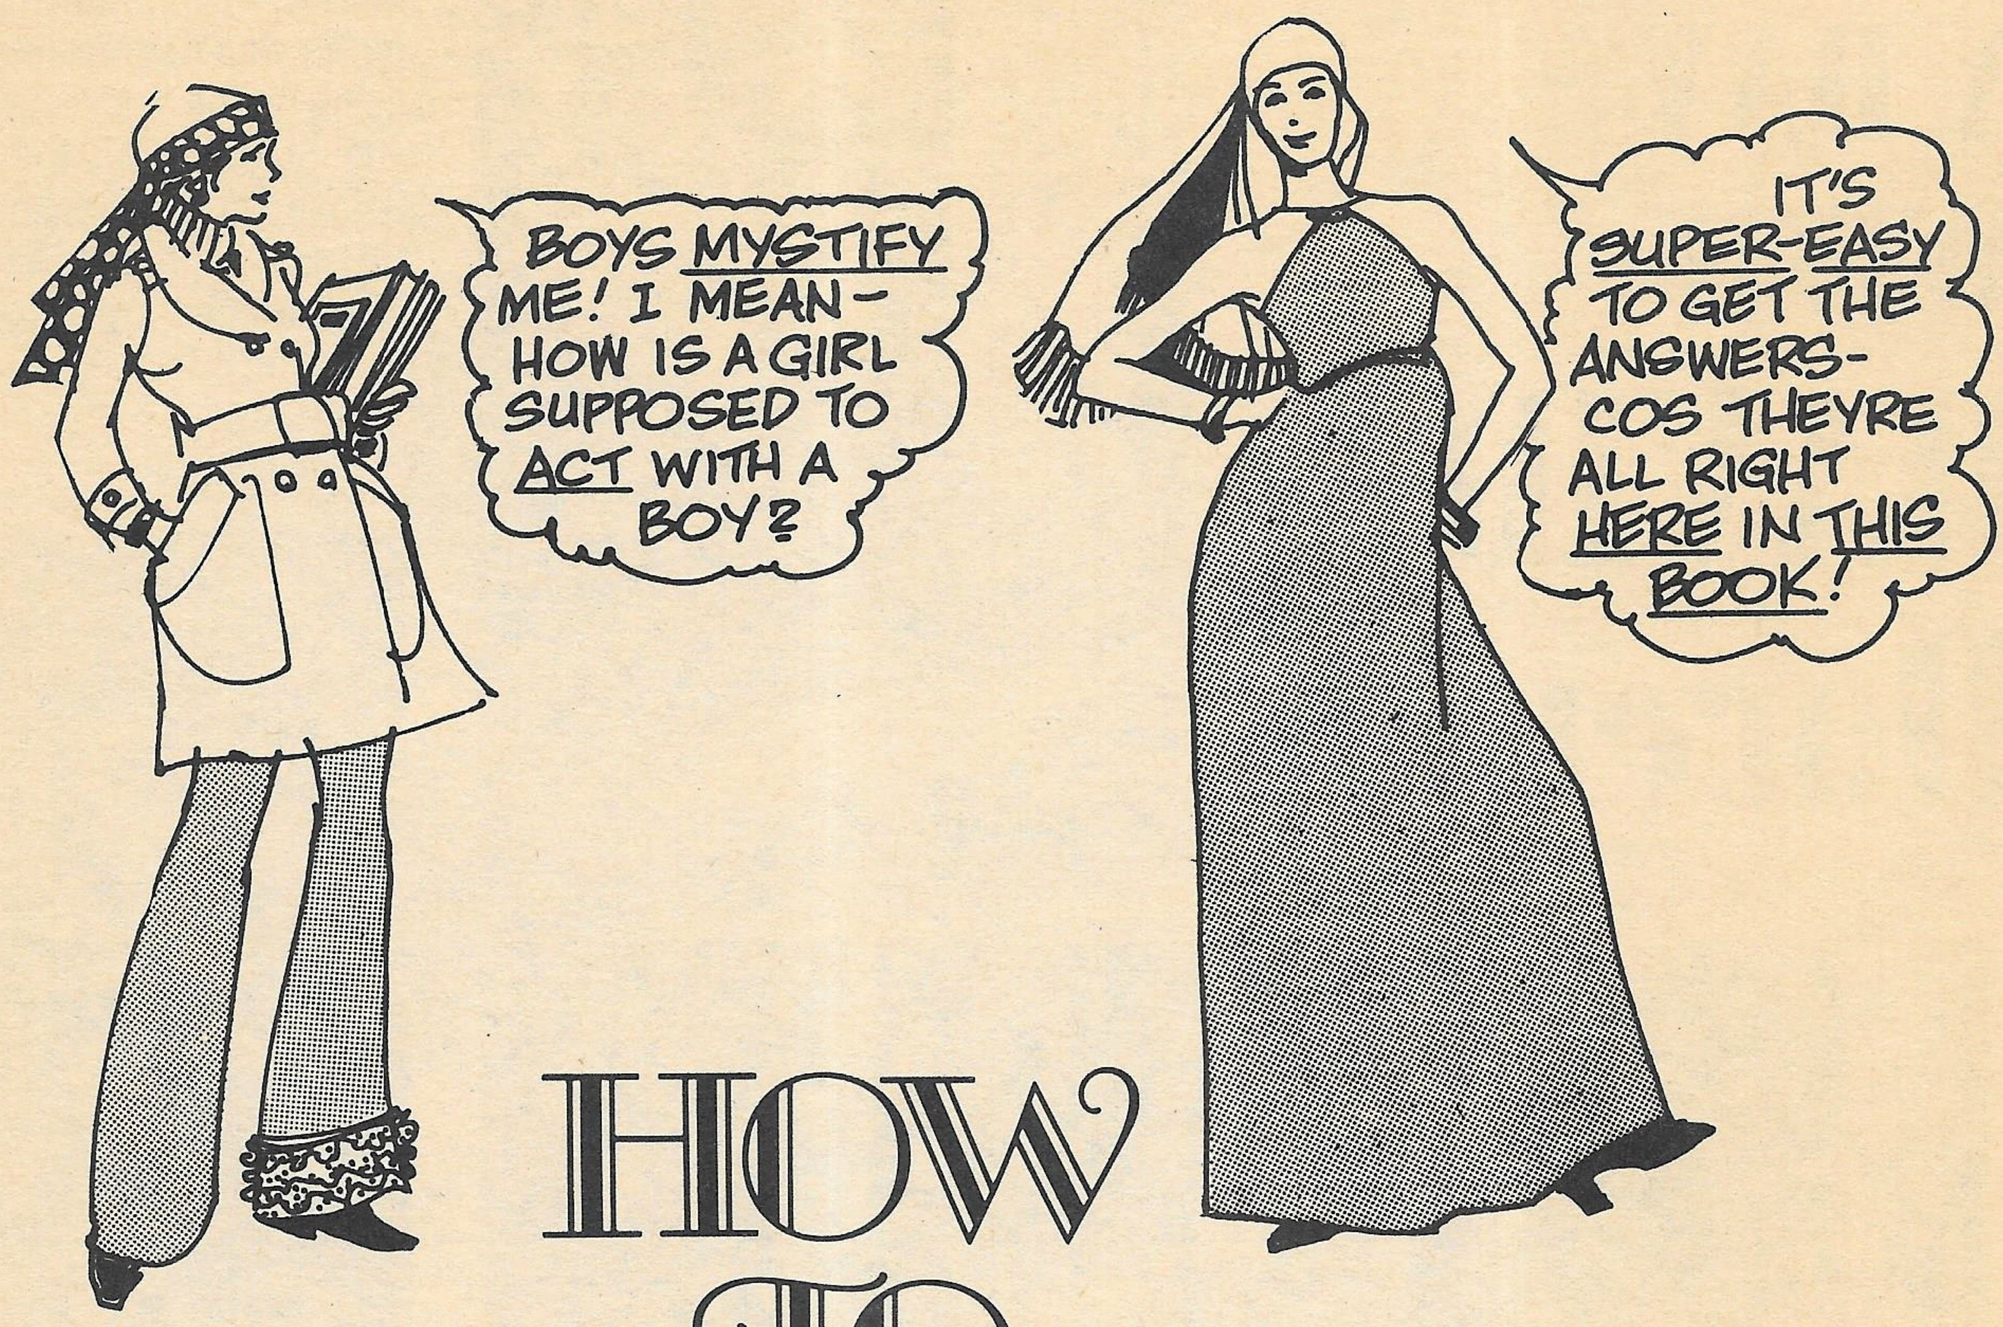

THE BIG DAY

The day of the show, the Cowsills get up bright and early, so they can take care of business. That means they are bound to visit your local radio stations, or make appearances on one or all of your local TV shows. Be sure to find out where these places are and check to see when the Cowsills are scheduled to appear. The smart thing to do is check these things out a couple of weeks before the Cowsills are due in your home town and (if necessary) get tickets so that you will have a reserved seat in the audience!

Since this is the day of the Cowsills' live show—they don't have very much spare time. They almost always arrive at the place of their live concert three hours before show-time, so they can rehearse, allow time for interviews, and yes—meet some of their fans! After their show (or shows), the Cowsills always go out to eat—in the most popular restaurant in town. After dinner, you can usually find them at the hotel—taking a swim in the hotel pool before retiring for the night.

As you can see, there are many opportunities for you to meet and get to know the Cowsills. The thing to remember is—the Cowsills really do want to meet you! In fact, the Cowsills literally go out of their way to say "hello" to their fans. That's because to a Cowsill, a "fan" is a "friend"—a very special kind of friend!

A DAY WITH DAVID Doremus

1. HELLO, 16-ers! Welcome to the 20th Century-Fox studio where ABC-TV's Nanny And The Professor is filmed! I'm going to be your own personal guide and take you on the "David Doremus Deluxe Tour"! So come on in and meet the cast of Nanny And The Professor. They've been expecting you!

3. As long as I'm introducing you to my TV family, I'd better not leave out "Waldo"! He'd never forgive me! Waldo is a sheep dog —and he weighs more than twice as much as I do! (I weigh 85 pounds and Waldo tips the scales at almost 200 pounds!)

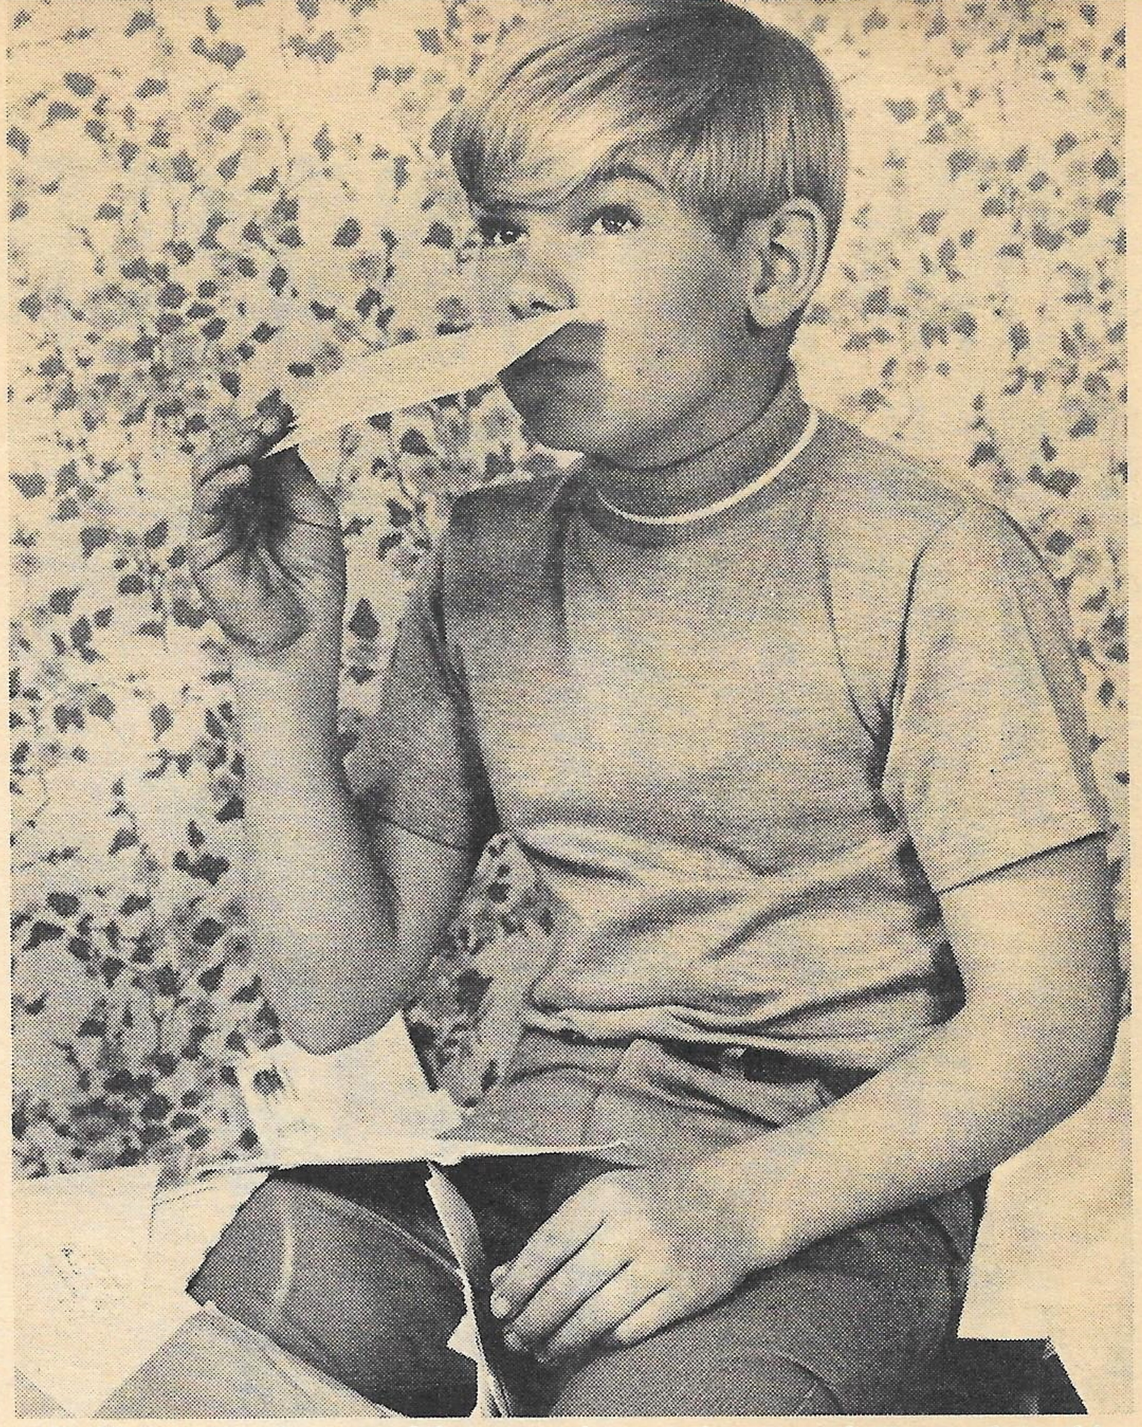

2. Meet Kim ("Prudence") Richards (sitting on my left); Richard ("Professor Everett") Long; and Trent ("Butch") Lehman. Standing behind us is Juliet ("Nanny") Mills. Guess what? Juliet's real-life sister is actress Hayley Mills!

4. The house and street behind me are not what they seem to be! This is one of the painted backdrops we use on the show— and it's really just a flat piece of canvas! It looks almost real enough to take a walk on, doesn't it?

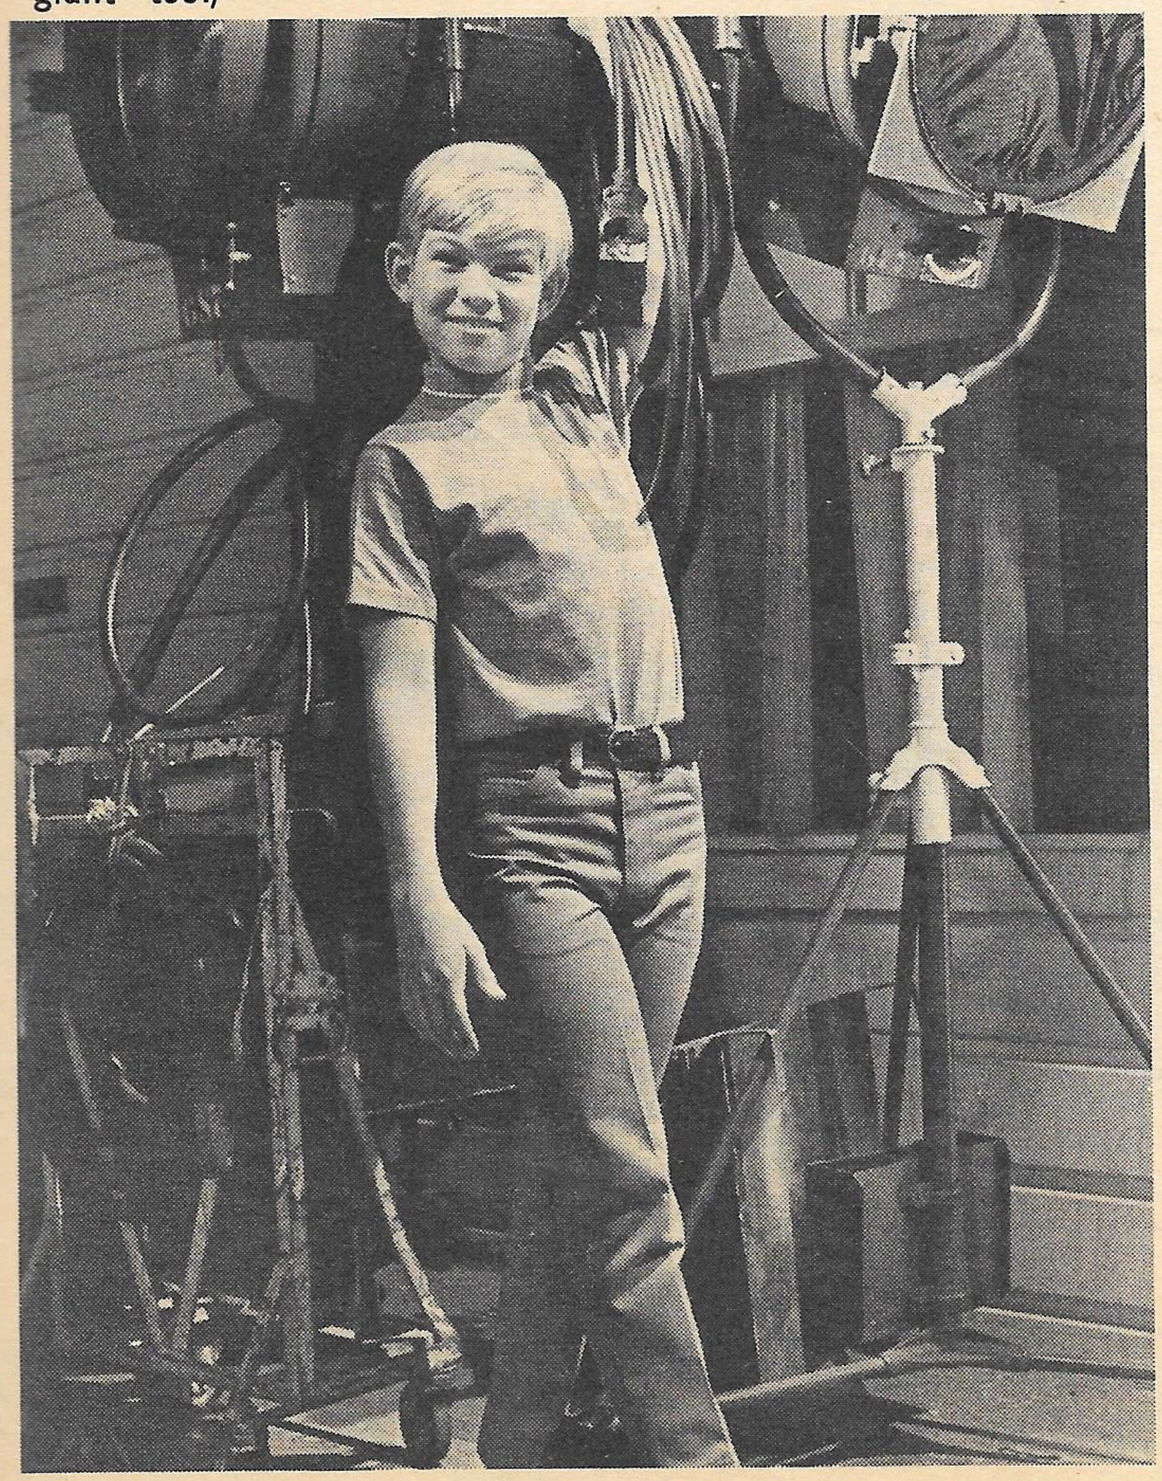

5. We get lots of fan mail here at the studio—and I really love to read your letters. Most of the envelopes have "I'm A 16 Reader" written on them—so I open them first! (I try to answer as many letters as I can!)

6. Yipes, I've heard of fans putting perfume on letters—but this is ridiculous! It smells like onions! (If you write me—don't drench the letter in perfume! I like to read letters, not smell them!)

7. Look at the size of these "super-giant" lights. It takes a lot of voltage to light them up—and they're really bright! (Can you imagine the size of the electric bill? You can be sure it's "super-giant" too!)

8. Time sure flies, doesn't it? I hope you enjoyed your visit. I know I enjoyed being your guide for the day! Let's do it again in the near future! Till then—stay tuned and I'll see you on the telly!

HOW YOU CAN MEET DAVID CASSIDY

Here's WHERE—and WHEN—David HANGS out!

AROUND THE FIRST of June, adorable David Cassidy is going to be firmly ensconced in one of the large studio buildings on the Screen Gems lot at 1334 N. Beachwood Drive in Hollywood, California! For it is there that David — along with his stepmother Shirley Jones and a whole passel of adorable kiddies (including the world's most lovable English sheep dog) — are going to go full steam into production of ABC-TV's most exciting forthcoming series. The show is called The Partridge Family — and it will be aired on ABC-TV each Friday night at 8:30 starting sometime in September!

Most 16 regulars are already hot 'n' heavy for David Cassidy — cos you've already seen him on Bonanza, Adam 12, Ironside, Marcus Welby, M.D., Medical Center and Mod Squad, to name just a few of the TV shows David has not only been on but which are going into re-runs this summer.

HIGH IN THE HILLS

David, who is an only child, recently rented a small house in the Laurel Canyon section of the Hollywood Hills (which he shares with a long-time college buddy). If you are ever in Los Angeles and you want to meet David Cassidy, the smartest thing you can do is to pick a spot on the Sunset Strip, somewhere near Mulholland Drive, and keep your eyes peeled for a midnight blue, 1968 fastback Mustang. When you spot it, take a good look at its driver — cos chances are, it's David!

When David isn't at home playing his guitar, rehearsing songs or writing them (and when he doesn't have too heavy a script to memorize), you might find him in any of the following places: the RCA or CBS (rental) recording studios; or at the Hollywood Colgems office, which is at 7033 Sunset Blvd.

For fun and games, David wouldn't pick a noisy discotheque. You're more likely to find him in the new Hollywood coffee house Figaro (the same New York City Figaro where Peter Tork used to hang out before the owner sold it and opened the new Figaro in Los Angeles). Or you might find David sitting at the Troubadour, listening in rapt attention to the current top folk singer performing there. If he does get around to going to a disco, it would be the quieter type — like the new Club John, the Candy Story or that old stand-by The Factory.

Actually, one of the most likely places in which to discover and meet David Cassidy is Wallich's Music City, at the intersection of Gower and Sunset. David is an avid music lover and he really digs going to Wallich's and going through the newest singles and LPs.

Also, David is a movie buff, so it's not unlikely that he would be standing in line to buy his ticket in front of any of the many big movie houses on Sunset Blvd.

HIDEAWAY WEEKENDS

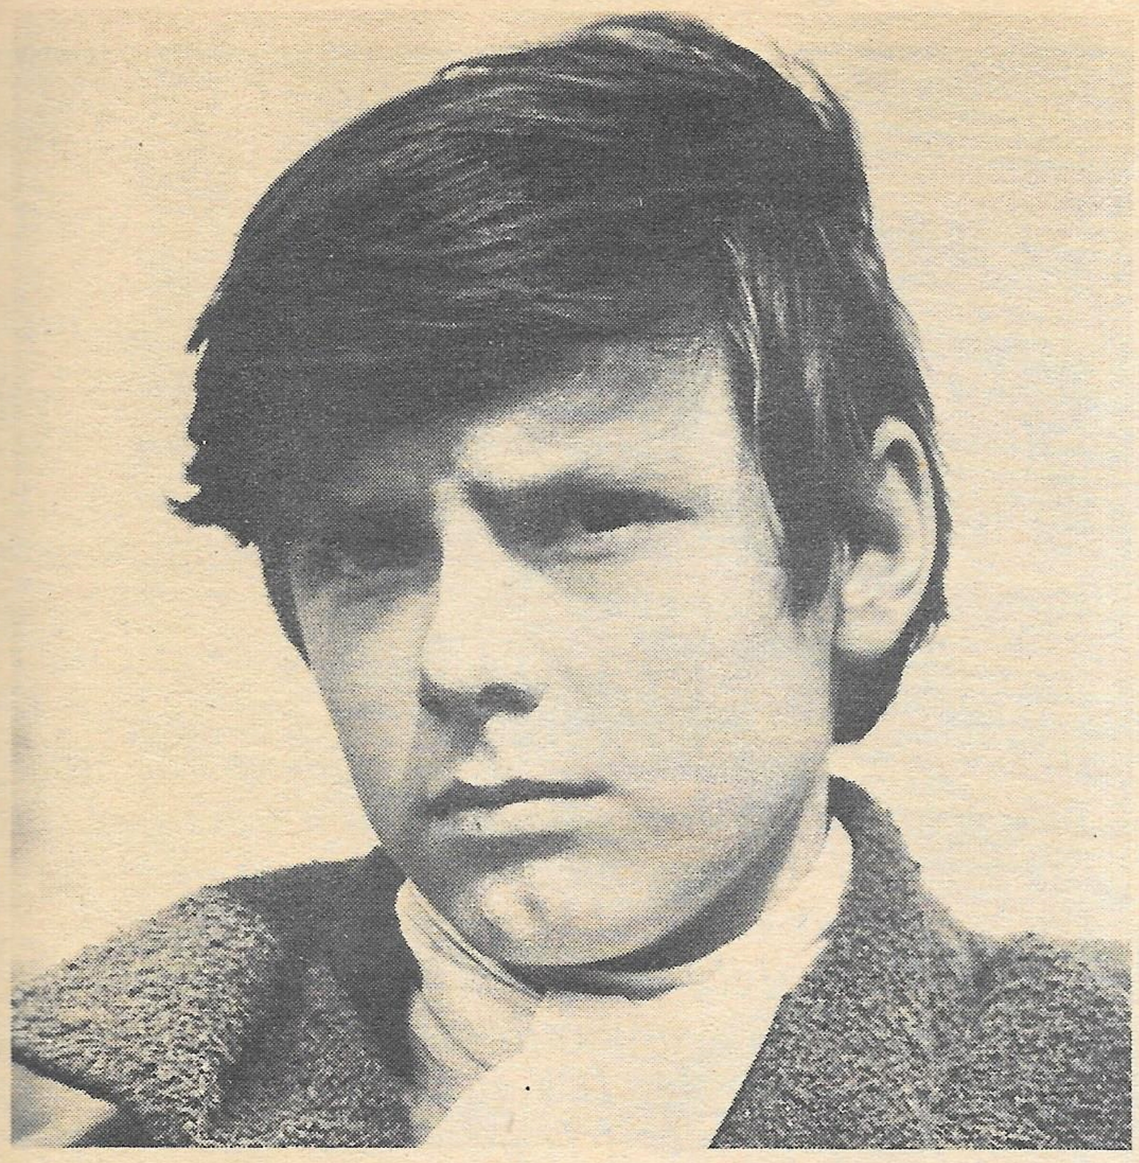

Weekends, David is most likely to drive to see his dad, actor Jack Cassidy, and his stepmother, Shirley Jones, at their beautiful home in Beverly Hills. If he doesn't spend a weekend at the Cassidy residence, David would drive off on his own (or with a buddy), either to the desert by Palm Springs or to the mountains by Big Bear.

David's mom, actress Evelyn Ward, is moving back to her native New York City — and since David is deeply attached to his mother, it isn't unlikely that he would spend a weekend with her in Manhattan when he could get the time off. Once in teeming New York, you're apt to find David almost anywhere, but the most likely spot would be somewhere around 711 Fifth Avenue — that's where the Screen Gems offices are in New York.

Wow — out of space and just when it was getting interesting! Well, hang in there — cos next month you're going to find out how to get to know David Cassidy! It'll all be in the August issue of 16 — which goes on sale June 23!!

MEET

SEAN SCULLY & ROBIN PHILLIPS

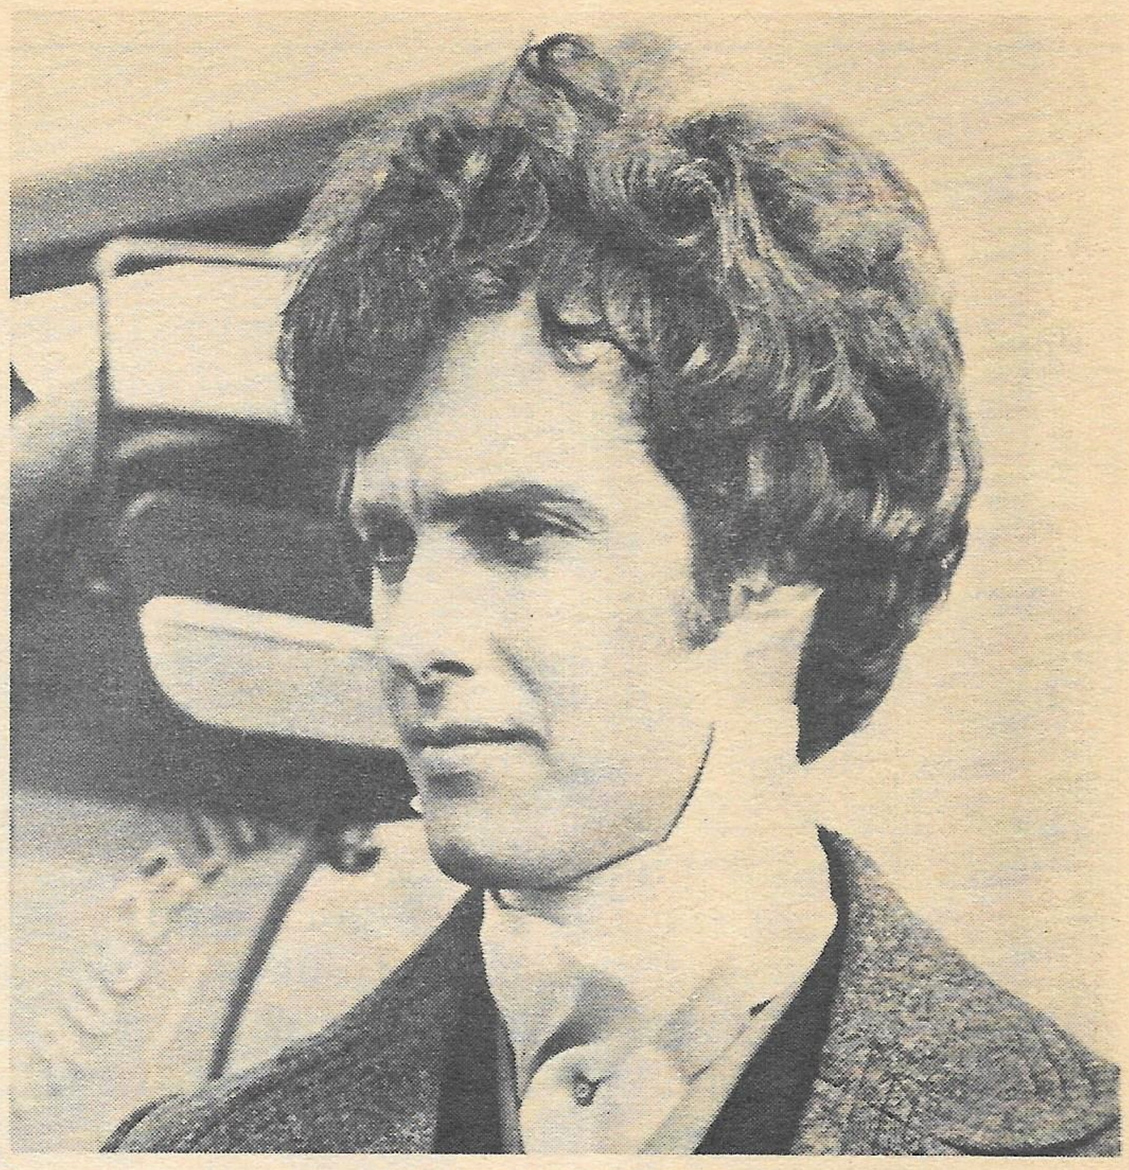

SEAN SCULLY

Sean Scully is a young actor who starred in the three-part adventure The Scarecrow Of Romney Marsh, which was aired on NBC-TV's The Wonderful World Of Disney during the first three weeks in May. Sean is 22 years old and was born in Manley, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia. (Sean was 16 when The Scarecrow Of Romney Marsh was filmed in England in 1964.)

Sean has appeared in several films for Walt Disney Productions. Movie-goers (and TV-watchers) may remember him from Almost Angels, another Disney film which was made in 1962 and shown on The Wonderful World Of Disney in April. Sean starred in another 1962 film, The Prince And The Pauper, in the difficult dual role of two "look-alikes." One of Sean's leading ladies in this exciting movie was none other than Jane Asher, who played the role of "Lady Jane Gray."

Sean hasn't made a new film in several years—but let's hope he does a new one soon! (Especially since The Scarecrow Of Romney Marsh was such a flamin' success!) You can write to Sean Scully at Walt Disney Productions, 500 S. Buena Vista, Burbank, Calif. (Be sure to put "I am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope!)

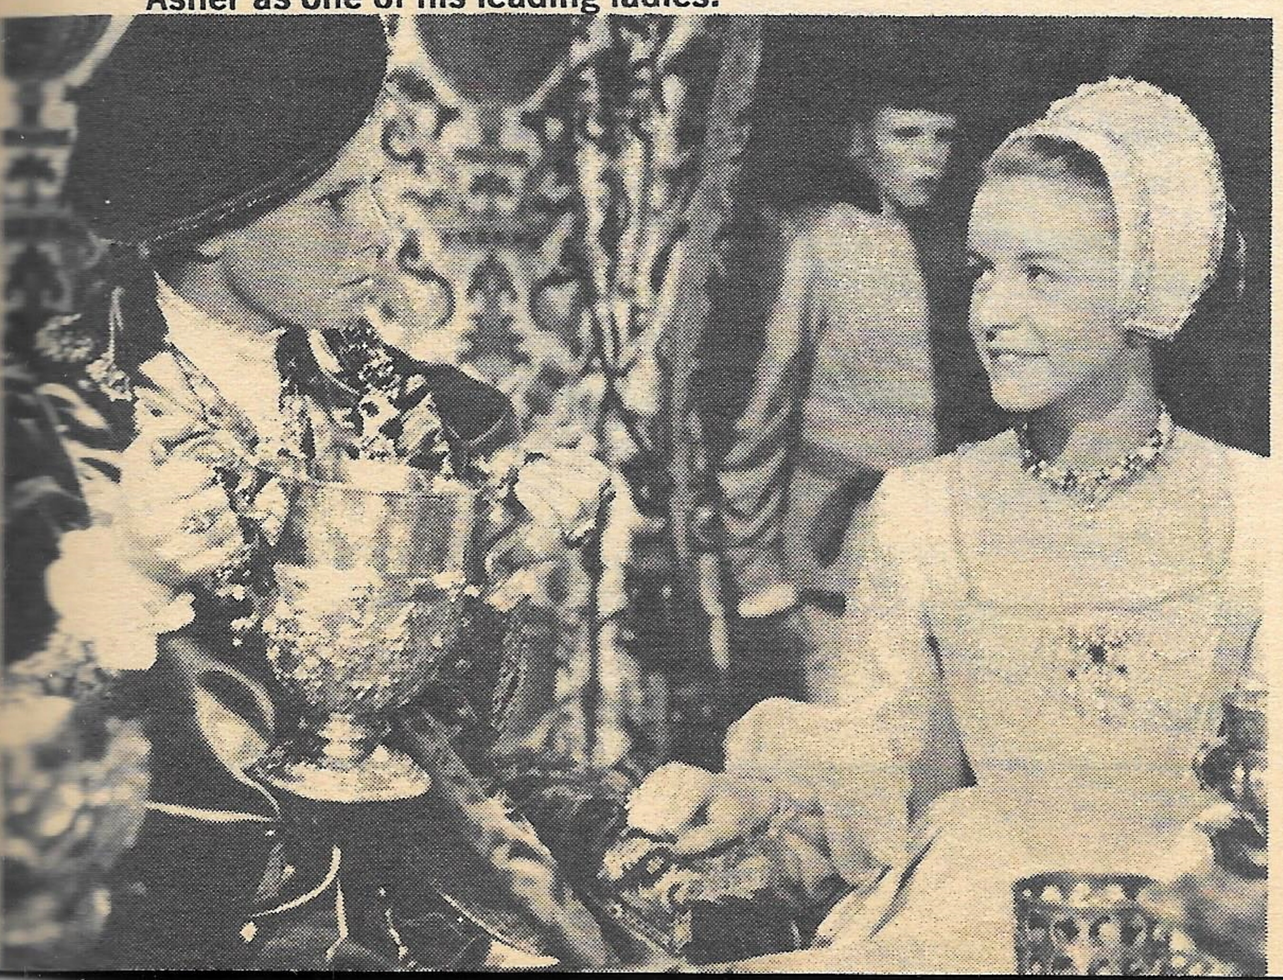

ROBIN PHILLIPS

Robin Phillips made a hit with American TV-viewers in the starring role of a fantastic NBC-TV special, David Copperfield, which was aired at the end of March. Robin was born in Sussex, England, in 1940—and he has been acting ever since he finished school. He was a member of the famous Old Vic Theatre Company and was featured in many Shakespearian plays, including the lead male roles in Romeo And Juliet and Hamlet.

Robin is a talented director as well as a fantastic actor. He has directed a number of plays for repertory companies in England, was associate director with the Royal Shakespeare Company, and has directed two operas which were presented on national television in England.

Robin was a member of Sir Laurence Olivier's Company at the Chichester Festival Theatre and played the role of "Wilfrid Desert" in the English TV production of The Forsythe Saga (which is currently being shown on the National Educational Television network in the United States.) Robin has starred in two movies for 20th Century-Fox, Decline And Fall and Two Gentleman Sharing. You can write to Robin at 20th Century-Fox, Box 900, Beverly Hills, Calif.

In 1962, Sean starred in The Prince And the Pauper—with Jane Asher as one of his leading ladies.

Robin's "true love" in the film was played by Pamela Franklin.

How to Meet & Get to Know

DAVID SELBY

If you want to meet me, you've got to be very fast on your feet—cos I've never been busier in my life! Needless to say, I find my activities very exhilarating, for I am "back on the boards"—as we say in show-biz. You see, recently I got myself the role of "Cisco" (a sort of cowboy-outlaw reincarnation) in an Off Broadway play called The Unseen Hand—and since we opened early in April, I've been leading a double life. No, wait—I take that back. I've been leading a triple life!

Aside from the Dark Shadows studio (for details about that, see David Henesy's story on Page 30) and the other spots where the DS regulars hang out for business (and personal) reasons, during the evenings I've been hanging out at 434 Lafayette Street—at the Astor Place Theatre—where The Unseen Hand goes on every night except Monday. And, aside from that—when I've had the chance, I've dashed up to Tarrytown to watch (and appear in) the new Dark Shadows motion picture! So you see I'm not kidding when I say you've got to be fast on your feet to keep up with me!

NO SOCIAL LIFE

As you can guess, my busy schedule precludes any social life, so when I have time to flop that's what I literally do—and it's usually in front of the TV set at my apartment in the west 70s in Manhattan. I'm a sports enthusiast, so I always hope (when I get a little time to dig the telly) that I can catch some sporting event—like the spring baseball games.

If you happen to be in New York City, and if you happen to see a very tall, very skinny, very hassled-looking cat with medium-long, dark brown hair (plus medium-long, dark brown sidies) streaking down the street of any of the neighborhoods I've mentioned—don't hesitate to rush right over and ask if it's me! You see, as busy as I am—I really love to stop, meet people and talk with them! I'm not much at making the first move, so don't you be the shy one! Like I said—walk right over, give me a friendly grin, stick out your hand for a shake—and we'll both stop awhile and get to know each other!

JONATHAN FRID

The Dark Shadows gang's movie-making sojourn to Tarrytown was really fascinating. But the two Davids (Henesy and Selby) have already raved on about that and the other Dark Shadows regular hang-outs, so I'll be more personal.

If you want to meet and get to know me—Jonathan Herbert Frid—you're going to have to be somewhat clever. In the next couple of paragraphs I'll leave a few cryptic clues lying about, and if you pick up on them—well, it could be that you and I will meet one day!

Unfortunately, in real life, I'm somewhat of a recluse. Don't misunderstand, I dearly love people—all people. It's just that I've so very little time for myself (and when I do, lately all of it has been spent working on my new apartment), that I treasure that time and like to spend it doing exactly what needs to be done by me at the particular moment.

If you're the type who likes to browse about second-hand and antique shops, and you find yourself in the East 50s, 60s or 70s on Second Avenue in New York City—it's not unlikely that the dark, quiet fellow browsing nearby is yours truly. If you like Italian food and are not above sharing the simple cuisine of Joe's on Third Avenue, that fellow at the next table (poring over his Dark Shadows script) may very well be me!

HARD TO GET TO KNOW

I might as well confess to another one of my "shortcomings" at this time. It's a known fact that I'm not very easy to get to know. It's not a known fact that I'm basically shy—and that's half the reason why I give the appearance of being somewhat of a "recluse." Professionally, I'm capable of introducing myself to young actors and actresses and so on, but in real life—well, like I said, I'm shy. So if you happen to pass by me, or see me somewhere, quietly come over and introduce yourself. Truthfully, that would please me more than anything—just try not to attract any attention. Tell me your name and where you're from. Just relax and don't be in a hurry. That'll help me to come out of my shell—and then we can really get to know each other!

David Selby & Jonathan Frid

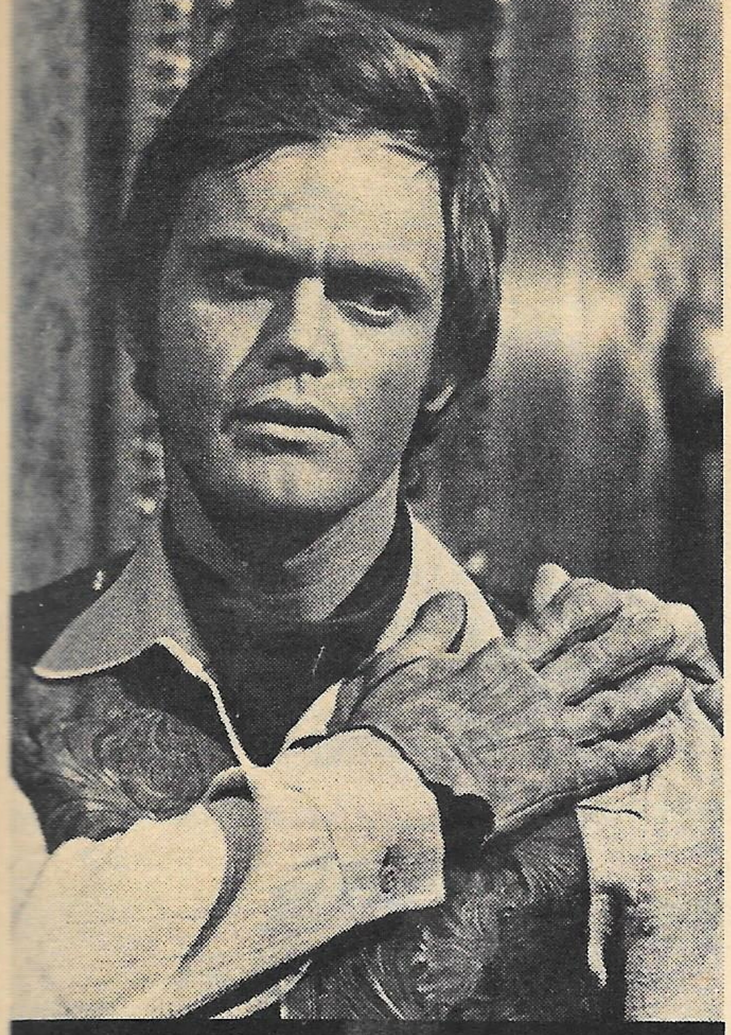

BARRY WILLIAMS

answers 40 intimate ?'s!

What is your full real name?
My full real name is Barry William Blenkhorn. Barry Williams is my stage name.
When and where were you born?
I was born on September 30, 1954, in Santa Monica, California.
What is your height, weight and coloring?
I'm five feet and four inches tall (and still growing), weigh 120 pounds—and I have brown hair and hazel eyes.
How many people are in your family and what are their names?
There are five of us. My mother's name is Doris—my dad's name is Frank—and I have two older brothers, Scott and Craig.
Where do you live now?
I live with my family in a groovy ranch-style house in Pacific Palisades, California.
Do you have a car?
Not yet. I'm not quite old enough for a driver's license. When I turn 16 in September, I'm going to get a Triumph TR-6. I can hardly wait!
Do you have any pets?
I'll say I do! I have a squirrel monkey named "Eddie," a German shepherd named "Tassie", two "nameless" cats and my horse "Ya-Teh-Ha."
What was your first ambition?
I've wanted to become an actor ever since I can remember. I made my acting debut on TV's Run For Your Life when I was eleven.
Who are your favorite recording stars?
I like a lot of them. I like the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, Lee Michaels and my good friend Craig Hundley.
What are your hobbies?
I love to go surfing. I've been at it for almost five years now. When it's summer vacation and my schedule (and the weather) permits, you can find me at Santa Monica beach—surfin' up a storm!
What sports do you like best?
I like to go horseback riding—and I'm wild about all water sports. I really feel at home in the water.
Can you cook?
Well, I can whip up a simple breakfast, but otherwise as a cook I'm a real dud!
Have you ever been seriously ill?
No. I've had all the standard childhood diseases–but never any thing serious. I'd like to keep it that way, too!
Would you like to get married?
Someday. For the present, I've been enjoying the "bachelor life" —but someday I'll want to settle down.
What kind of girl would you like to marry?
I can't quite describe her—but I'll know her when I meet her! (She'll know me too, I hope!)
What type of girls do you like best?
I like girls who are happy. I can't stand girls who are gloomy. I like to laugh and have fun—and I like my dates to feel the same way.
What is most important when you meet a girl–her looks or her personality?
Personality. It doesn't make a bit of difference how pretty a girl is if she doesn't have a good personality.
What three tips would you give a girl who wanted you to like her?
Be yourself! Be yourself! Be yourself!
What type of girls do you usually dislike?
Girls who are loud and boisterous turn me off. I'm not crazy about girls who act childish and giggle all the time, either.
What would you do if you suddenly came into a million-dollar inheritance?
I'd probably faint dead away! After they revived me, I'd invest in some stock or property—and put the rest of it in the bank. (I'd spend a little, too!)
Of all the places you've visited in America, which one would you like to return to?
I haven't been to too many places outside of California—but I really love Lake Powell in Utah. It was wild and pretty there.
What was the biggest thrill of your life?
I think that landing the role of "Greg" on The Brady Bunch gave me the biggest thrill I've ever had.
What was your biggest disappointment?
I don't like to waste time being disappointed about anything.
What people have helped you most with your acting career?
Lois Auer, my dramatics teacher—Toni Kelman, my agent—and my family have helped me. I couldn't have had half-as-much success as I have without their help!
Who are your closest friends in show business?
I'd have to say the members of The Brady Bunch cast. We have lots of fun together-on and off the set!
Of all the performers you've worked with, who do you admire most?
Robert Young! I met him when I did one of the episodes of Marcus Welby, M.D. He's one of the kindest and most helpful stars in show business—and he's been at it for a long time too! He's quite a gentleman!
If you could take a vacation, where would you go?
I'd love to go to Hawaii! I'd get in a lot of surfing and spend my time soaking up the sun!
Are you a day or a night person?
I guess you'd have to call me a "day 'n night" person cos I like them both!
How do you relax?
It's a funny thing, but just going for a swim relaxes me more than anything else I can think of. A quick dip in the ocean or a pool just melts all the tension out of me. I really am a porpoise at heart, cos I really feel at home in the water.
What kind of clothes do you like to wear when you're not performing?
I like to wear "stovepipe" pants—and I like long sleeve, western-style shirts. I'm not too crazy about super-bright or flashy clothes. I'm a bit conservative!
What kind of clothes do you like to see girls wear?
Anything that fits well. I'm crazy about girls who wear hip-hugger slacks—the tighter the better! They look great!
What is your most prized material possession?
That's hard to say. I have a ring I've worn for four years that I'm really attached to. I'm not superstitious, but I'd hate to lose it. It's my "good luck" ring!
Do you have a pet fear?
I can't stand to be in tight, closed places. They really make me nervous. I like the wide open spaces!
What kind of presents do you like to give to girls?
I usually don't buy my dates gifts unless it's a special occasion. If I really like a girl, I'd buy her a necklace of some kind.
Are you moody or temperamental?
I'm a little moody when I'm under a lot of pressure. I don't stay that way long.
What advice would you give a young person who would like to make a career in show business?
Prepare yourself to work very hard. Set your goal and give all you've got for as long as it takes you to reach it. Be prepared for lots of disappointments—and don't let them get you down!
Give a one-word description of each of the other members of the The Brady Bunch.
Christopher Knight is easygoing. Mike Lookinland is spunky. Maureen McCormick is cute. Eve Plumb is friendly. Susan Olsen is loveable.
Describe yourself in one word.
I guess the world would have to be active.
Have you ever dated a fan and, if not, would you?
I've never dated a fan, but if I met one—and we "hit it off" together—I would. I like fans!
Do you read your fan mail?
I sure do! And I try to answer as many fan letters as I possibly can!
What is the best place for fans to write to you?
You can write to me at ABC-TV Center, 4151 Prospect, Ave., Hollywood, California. Be sure to put "I Am A 16 Reader" on the outside of your envelope, cos I open those letters first!

Roger as "S. F. Moody"

Dark Shadows Letters

Dear Roger,

I saw you as "Stephen Foster Moody" on ABC-TV's movie of the week The Young Country—and I thought you were just great! Is there any chance of The Young Country (starring you of course) becoming a regular TV series?

Sara Haute

Poughkeepsie N. Y.

• Dear Sara,

Thanks for the lovely compliment. I'm so glad you enjoyed the show. Right now, we're not sure whether The Young Country will become a regular series, but there is a definite possibility—so keep your fingers crossed! Thank you for caring.

Roger Davis

Dear David Selby,

Since I live too far away from New York to come and see the one-act Off Broadway play The Unseen Hand that you star in, could you tell me a little about it?

Joyce Mitchell

Broken Axle Ark.

• Dear Joyce,

In The Unseen Hand, I play a "dead" 1880s cowboy-outlaw named "Cisco," who is returned to the present and has to deal with the problems of the world today. At first, I think I can't cope, but I manage to—in order to survive! It's hard to explain the whole story. I only wish you could see it. For those of you who are near enough to New York to see it, it's playing at the Astor Place Theatre, 434 Lafayette Street, New York City. See you there!

David Selby

Dear DS Gang,

I just love Josette's Theme! In fact, I would love to have a music box that plays Josette's Theme. Do any of you know where I could get a Josette's music box?

Helen Deach

St. Louis, Mo.

• Dear Helen,

We have some good news for you. ABC-TV has arranged to have some Josette music boxes, playing the exact theme you hear on Dark Shadows, made up and placed on sale via mail. The boxes are very charming and have a little section in the top where you can put jewelry, goodies or whatever. The theme the music box plays, of course, is Josette's Theme. You can get your very own Josette music box by sending a check or money order for $4 to Josette's Theme, Paul Randolph Associates, Box 454, Caldwell, N. J. 07006. By the way, your Josette's music box is a replica of the one you've seen on the show!

The DS Gang

Dear Jonathan,

I'm so excited I could scream!! I've heard that you and the DS gang have

I Want to get to Know YOU!

BY JACK WILD

If Jack is the type of boy you could like - here are some tips to help you get to know him!

GETTING TO KNOW someone is really very easy. All it requires is a little effort and understanding—and a lot of listening. Since I know I'm going to like you, if you think I'm the type of boy you could like—then don't think me conceited for offering the following hints that could help you to know me better:

Be open and friendly. In spite of my kooky sense of humor and brash "come on," there's a shy streak in me and I'm still a bit unsure of myself. So if you let me know that you're open, sincere, warm and friendly, it'll make it easier for me to get to know you.

Don't be embarrassed to invite me to the place where you hang out—to your house, or school, or whatever. You see, I'm new in this country and what may be "old hat" to a lot of girls and guys is a truly thrilling and exciting experience to me. In fact, I can't think of anything more groovy than visiting your home town and seeing how the average American lives!

Introduce me to your family. I'm from a very close family and I guess you can say I'm "family oriented." That's a highbrow explanation which means that after we meet, I'd love to get to know your folks too. In fact (and here's a surprise), my folks would like to meet you—and then they would like to meet your folks! Being an average English family, we are terribly interested in spending time with an average American family.

Be romantic. By that, I mean be as sentimental, loving and—what other people might call—corny as you want to be. I don't mean be all gushy and gooey, because—frankly—that would embarrass me to death. But do be the kind of person who isn't afraid to show they care, who isn't too snobbish to be a bit sentimental, who likes holding hands and nestling up close. That would be a very special way of showing that you care only for me—which would make me even more anxious to really get to know you!

Sweetheart of the Month — Mark Lester

16's July Sweetheart of the Month is adorable and talented Mark Lester! Marvelous Mark first stopped hearts with his sensitive portrayal of "Oliver Twist" in Oliver! He recently completed The Boy Who Stole The Elephant, a Walt Disney circus adventure, and Eyewitness, a film he made in England. Now let's share just a few of the love-filled messages that have been pouring in for Mark from some of 16's readers!

"I think Mark Lester is the cutest boy I've ever seen! I saw him in Oliver! and he was terrific! When I found out his birthday was July 11, 1958—which makes Mark only one month older than me—I almost flipped!

—Casey M., Northboro, Mass.

"Mark Lester is a real living doll! With those big blue eyes and that soft blond hair, I could just hug him and squeeze him forever!

—Nancy L., Ann Arbor, Mich.

"I didn't know what love was till I first saw Mark Lester! I've seen Oliver! four times so far—and each time I love him more and more! He's just too much!

—Julie D., Eugene, Oreg.

"I've heard that good things come in small packages —well, Mark Lester is the living, breathing proof of that! I think he's the greatest!

—Grace T., Austin, Tex.

ON TOUR WITH STEFAN

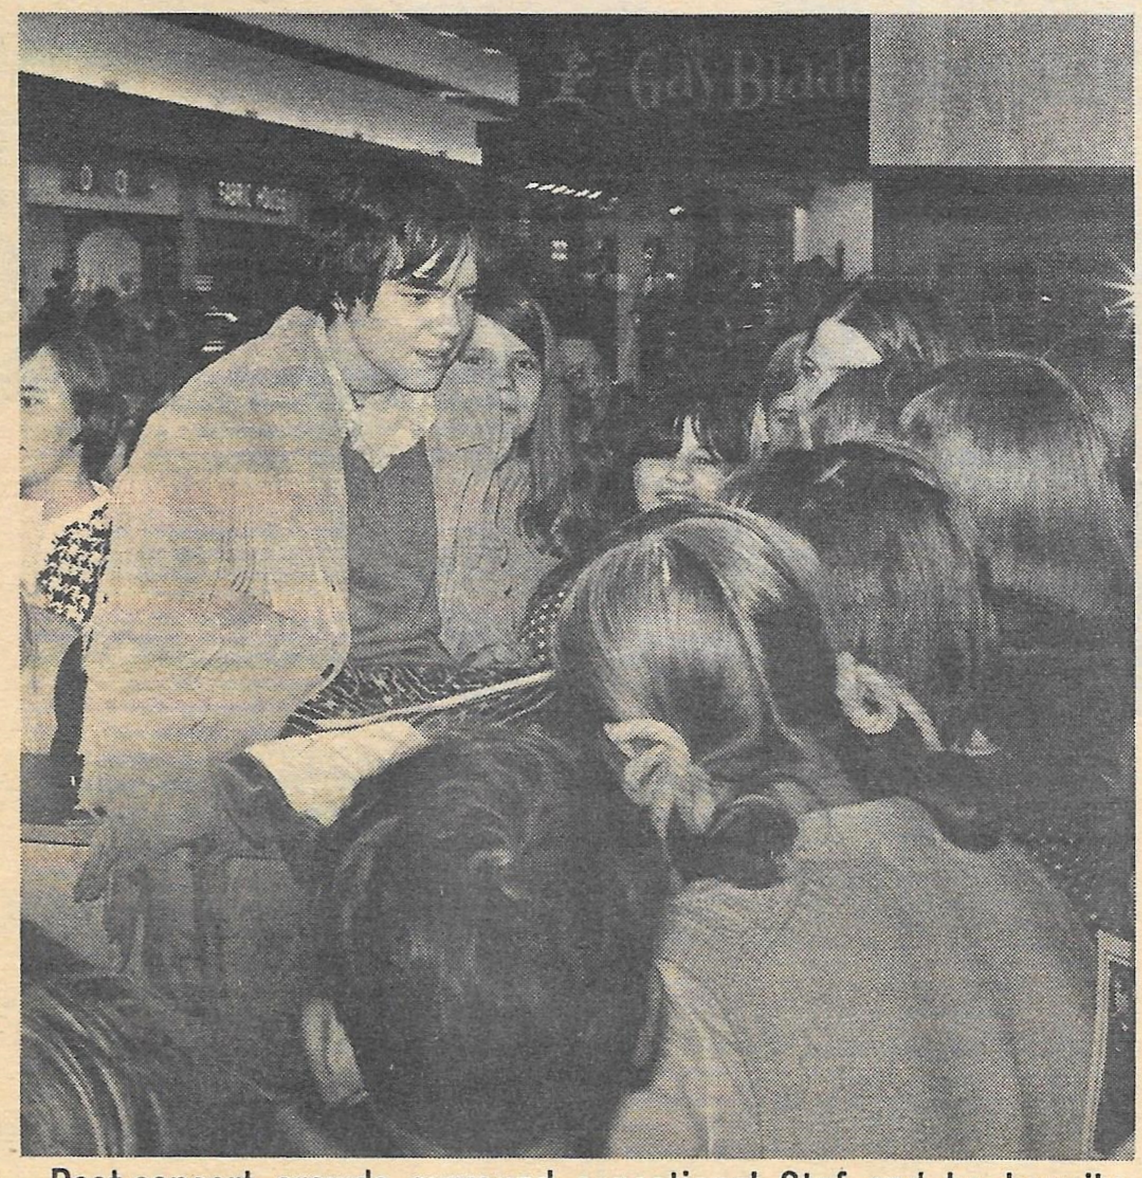

LOTS OF lucky teens in Washington and Oregon had a super-treat when adorable Stefan Arngrim recently visited them on a concert tour. Among the stops he made were Seattle, Washington, and Eugene and Salem, both in Oregon. Crowds flocked to see and hear Stefan wherever he went—and his groovy voice and super-looks set all hearts a-flutter! Soon the rest of Stef's fans are gonna have a chance to show their love, cos he's planning another concert tour —this time throughout the entire U.S.! Meanwhile, let's hop over to Washington and Oregon—and join Stefan on his tuneful travels!!

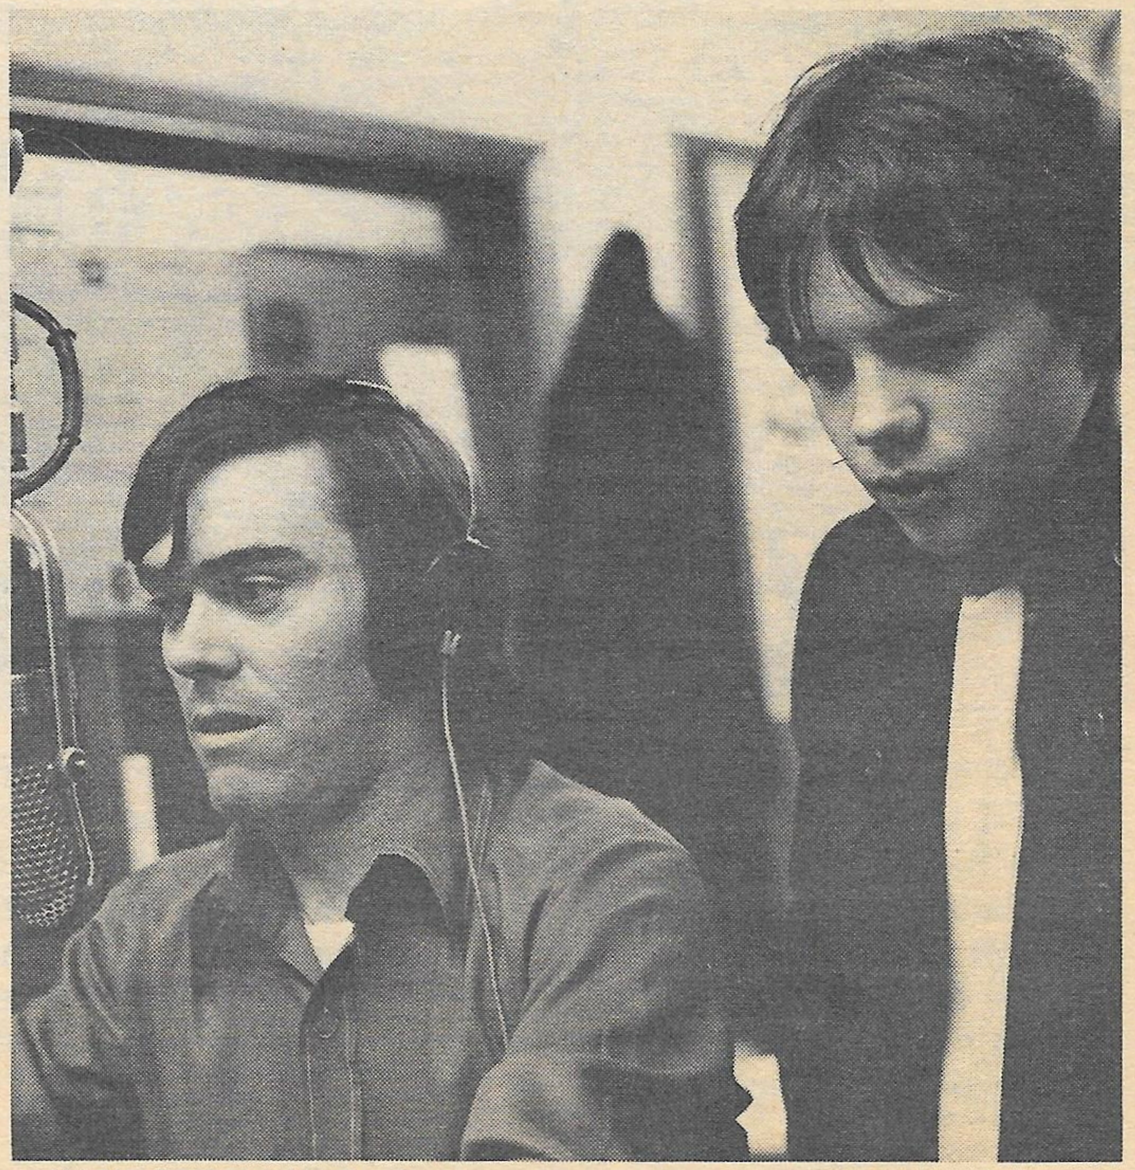

Dressed in his usual groovy garb, Stefan "turns on" the live audience by singing Cloudy Day—the single on Jerden Records he wrote and recorded!

Accompanied by the Stefan Arngrim Band and some fans who wanted a close-up of their fav, Stef sings You Got Style—the other side of his smash single.

Post-concert crowds surround sensational Stef and he happily obliges his fans by chatting with them, signing autographs and posing for a pic or two.

While in Seattle, Stef stopped by Radio Station KJR to visit with deejay Tom Murphy and to say "hi" to the radio audience. Remember—Stefan might be in your area soon—so keep a lookout!!

WHITHER SAJ?

Dear Miss Stavers,

I'm a dedicated 16 reader and a loyal SAJID fan. I was glancing through a "supposedly true" Hollywood teen mag and I read an item that said none of Sajid's friends have heard a thing from him since he went to India—and that he was probably going to stay there and never come back! Then I read in 16 a short note from him saying he'd be back soon! What gives? Please straighten everything out before I lose my mind!!

Cece Fields

N. Plainfield, N. J.

• Dear Cece,

Dry your tears and perk up! When SAJID went home to visit his relatives, he was received by such overwhelming popular acclaim and by requests to do TV shows and concerts that he decided to stay a few extra months. But never fear—Saj is champing at the bit to come back to the States—and is expected any day now!

SCARED OF BOYS

Dear Miss Stavers,

I've just started to go out with boys, and I'm scared—because I'm not sure how I should act with them. Please advise me!

Penny Lassiter

Des Moines, Iowa

• Dear Penny,

You can get all the answers to all of your questions as to how a girl should act with boys in 16*'s great new book* What Every Girl Should Know! Just turn to Page 47 and find out how to get a copy.

NAMATH NEWS

Dear Miss Stavers,

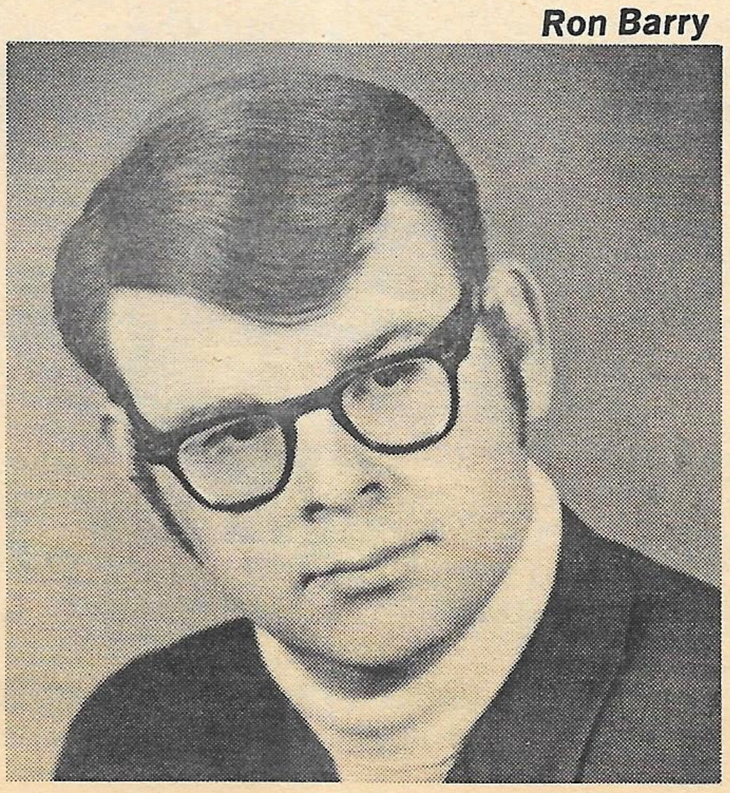

Thanks so much for running my Joe Namath National Fan Club in 16. I got a great response—and now I would like for you to run my change of address, so that any new members who would like to join can write me for information. Thought your 16-NAMATH fans might like to know that JOE and the lovely ANN-MARGRET will be co-starring in their own new movie C. C. Ryder & Company. In it, Joe plays a charming drifter on a motorbike and Ann-Margret plays a fashion model.

Indeed, it is true! And you and all other 16*-ers can get a copy of* 16*'s fabulous new* Address & Phone Book by following the instructions on Page 43!

DEEJAY SALUTES

Dear Miss Stavers,

Please run this picture of my favorite deejay RON BARRY of Radio WEST in Easton, Pensylvania. You can hear him from 7:30 P.M. till 1:30 A.M. Mondays through Thursdays. He was the first deejay ever to play Quentin's Theme—and he's an avid Dark Shadows fan!

HAGERS HAPPY!

Dear Miss Stavers,

I've really flipped for the groovy HAGER BROTHERS, but one thing confuses me. In the March ish of 16, you said that JIM wears a Mickey Mouse watch, and that JOHN wears a Snoopy watch, and that that's how you can tell them apart. Later, in the April ish of 16, you said that Jim wears the Snoopy watch and John wears the Mickey Mouse watch! Which is which?!

Susan Barnes
Los Alamos, N. M.

• Dear Susan,

The mischievous HAGER twins actually switch their watches back and forth — and right now they are both wearing Snoopy watches! The best way to tell them apart (on TV, anyway) is that JIM plays guitar and JOHN plays tambourine.

HOW TO FLIP!

Dear Miss Stavers,

When I got home from school today I found a whole Bag Full Of Goodies mailed to me by 16! It was beautiful!

• Dear Ann,

Glad you flipped for it! Any other 16-ers who wanna turn somersaults — see Page 19!

HATES BOBBY'S HAIR

Dear Miss Stavers,

Ugh! I'm a big fan of BOBBY SHERMAN and I love him on Here Come The Brides, but when I saw him on The Mike Douglas Show—his hair was so long that it was straggly! It was nice of Bobby to give a big plug to 16 SPEC (he even held the magazine up so that everyone could see it), but I—for one—vote that Bobby get his hair cut back to its former length. What do you think?

Hillary Eames
Philadelphia, Pa.

• Dear Hillary,

Personally, I like BY's hair both ways — extra long and medium long. What do the rest of you 16*-ers think?*

MAD FOR MAUREEN

Dear Miss Stavers,

I think MAUREEN McCORMACK is adorable. Please tell me where I can write to her and the rest of the Brady Bunch.

Patricia Frost
Washington, D. C.

• Dear Patricia,

You can write to MAUREEN, who will be 13 on August 5 (and the rest of the Brady Bunch*) at ABC-TV, 4151 Prospect Avenue, Hollywood, Calif.*

MAD FOR MICHAEL

Dear Miss Stavers,

I think MICHAEL MAITLAND is the best thing that ever hapened to Dark Shadows! Could you please tell me what he's been up to lately, where I can write to him, and how I can help get him back on Dark Shadows?!

Theresa Vernon
St. Paul, Minn.

• Dear Theresa,

MICHAEL attends Professional Childrens School in New York City and has recently done several TV commercials. If you—or any of the rest of you 16*-ers—want to see Michael back on* Dark Shadows, just write him a letter and tell him so, but send the letter to this address: Michael Maitland, c/o Dan Curtis Productions, 405 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.

COWSILLS' CALENDAR

IN ORDER to meet the Cowsills, all you have to know is where they will be—and when they will be there! To help you with your campaign to meet your fav Cowsill (or maybe you love them all!)—here is an up-to-date Cowsill Calendar plus a personal guide-list of the Cowsills favorite hang-outs!!

June

The Cowsills will spend the first three weeks of June in California, taking a well-deserved vacation and making plans for Bob Cowsills' wedding — which is set for June 27th. When they are at home in California, the Cowsills can usually be found at one of the following places:

Santa Monica Beach—This beach is just a few minutes' drive from the Cowsills' home and there's always a Cowsill or two there—taking in the sun and enjoying the ocean.

Los Angeles Zoo—All of the Cowsills love to spend an afternoon roaming around the zoo.

Disneyland—This fun-filled amusement park is located in Anaheim, California (about an hour's drive from the Cowsills' home). It's one of their all-time favorite places—and there's so much to see and do at Disneyland that the Cowsills usually spend the entire day here.

Lenny's Boot Parlor—Located at 1448 North Gower—right off Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles. This is where the Cowsills have their stage outfits made, but they also buy a lot of their everyday clothes at Lenny's too.

The Corral—Another clothing store where the Cowsill boys like to shop. This one is located in Santa Monica.

Martoni's—Located at 1523 Cahuenga—in Hollywood. This is the Cowsills' favorite Italian restaurant. They eat here at least once a week.

The Beach House—This is a music club located in Santa Monica (the Cowsill clan sure sticks close to home, doesn't it). The Cowsills visit this club very often, cos their favorite group—the Twice Nicely—appear here regularly. (By the way, the Cowsills go to see the Twice Nicely almost everywhere they play — that's how great they think this new group is!)

The Troubadour — Located at 9081 Santa Monica Boulevard. The entire family can be found here—sitting in the audience and watching the show!

United Recording Studio — This is the place where the Cowsills do most of their recording. Even though they are on vacation—you never can tell when they might get an idea for a new record!

July

The Cowsills will have time off during the first two weeks of July (while Bob is on his honeymoon!) and no doubt they will spend part of that time in New York City. Their favorite hang-outs in New York are:

Central Park — The boys organize football games and Susan goes along as cheerleader. They very often visit the Central Park Zoo too!

888 Eighth Avenue—The Cowsills used to live in this apartment building and they always visit friends who still live there. Hint: They usually meet in the corner soda shop!

Restaurants—The Cowsills are forever hunting for new and interesting places to eat, so they go to many different restaurants in New York. However, one of their favorite late-night spots is Reuben's—located on 58th Street between Fifth and Madison Avenues. (By the way, if you happen to be passing a pizza stand—take a good look, cos you may very well see a Cowsill or two munching away!)

Theater and Movies—One thing the Cowsills really dig is going to Broadway plays. They all love movies too—so chances are you can find them making the rounds of the theaters and movie houses whenever they're in New York!

Cowsills ON TOUR!

Don't worry if you don't live in California or New York City and therefore think you won't meet the Cowsills—cos here's some great news! On July 20th, the Cowsills will be back on the road again! They will begin a cross-country tour, making personal appearances in so many different cities—probably your home town too—that you'll have a great chance to meet them! The August issue of 16 (which goes on sale June 23rd) will include a complete Cowsill itinerary—so be sure to reserve your copy now!!
